DEAR CLASSMATES:—

A revised edition of our class directory is herewith submitted. The task of compiling the same has been an agreeable one, though tinged with regret that not more data were available. Surely the occasional remembrance of the two years spent together at our Alma Mater is commendable, and the maintenance of this pamphlet an expression of healthy sentiment.

The success that has rewarded our efforts in the cold, cold world is uniform though one fellow-student facetiously says of himself: "My personality and income do not yet exceed the amount of my exemptions."

I would fain have edited an addenda showing the geographical distribution of our classmates, but the lack of absolute certainty as to so large a per cent. of the addresses caused me not to do so.

While congratulatory letters may be "flatteringunction to my soul," yet I would rather receive the manifestation of your class-spirit in the form of corrections and suggestions for a possible third edition and the observance of the suggestion contained in the enclosed slip, which please nota bene.

Wishing you collectively and individually continued success, I remain, with the compliments of the season,

Truly yours,  G. A. K.
