HONORED GUESTS
AND
PRIZE AWARD RECIPIENTS
1965-1966

Barristers Award. The Barristers Society of the University of Michigan Law School makes this prize award to the senior law student who has compiled a fine scholastic record while also making, through part-time employment, one of the most substantial contributions toward his own legal education.

Edwin A. McCabe

Henry M. Bates Memorial Scholarships. . . to two outstanding seniors in the Law School, account being taken of scholarship in both undergraduate and legal studies, personality, character, extracurricular interests, and promise of a distinguished career. These awards are paid from the income derived from a fund established by alumni and friends of the Law School in memory of the late Dean Henry M. Bates.

J. Alan Galbraith
W. Richard Keller

S. Anthony Benton Memorial Award. Mr. Benton, J.D. 1963, an excellent student and leader and participant in extra-curricular activities in the Law School, died of cancer in 1965. Friends and associates have established a fund in his memory to support an annual award to an outstanding senior in the Law School, account being taken of scholastic excellence in legal studies particularly in the fields of Constitutional and International Law, participation and leadership in activities relating to the Law School’s educational program, extracurricular interests, character, and promise of a distinguished career.

John C. Cook
Bodman-Longley Award. Established in memory of two former partners, Henry E. Bodman '96 and Clifford B. Longley '13, by the Detroit firm of Bodman, Longley, Bogle, Armstrong and Dahling. A cash award to a worthy law student who has been elected to the editorial board of the Michigan Law Review as selected by the Dean of the Law School.

To be announced

Clarence M. Burton Memorial Scholarships. Substantial cash awards made to three seniors in the Law School who have exhibited superior scholarship while engaging in significant extracurricular activities and substantially contributing to their own support through part-time employment. These three awards have been made available, beginning with the 1953–54 academic year, through the generosity of the Clarence M. Burton Memorial Foundation, of Detroit, Michigan.
