THE LAW BOOK STORE

Ph. 663-9333 1216 So. University Ave.
To our knowledge this is the first publishing of a directory for the use of the students and faculty of the University of Michigan Law School. We hope that it will prove to be a service to its users during the coming year.

Special thanks are due Campbell's List, Inc. for its generous offer to publish the directory, Dean Roy F. Proffitt for his patience and assistance in its editing, and our advertisers.

Citizens approaching the Woodward Avenue facade of Detroit's City-County Building are confronted by this monumental bronze figure, "The Spirit of Detroit." Created by Michigan's own famed sculptor, Marshall M. Fredericks, the kneeling figure towers 16 feet above the ground and expresses the relationship of God to man. The main figure is cast of green patinaed bronze while the symbol of God in one hand and the family group in the other are of gilded bronze.
