

University of Michigan Law School University of Michigan Law School Scholarship Repository

Yearbooks & Class Year Publications

Law School History and Publications

Class of 1894

Bulletin, vo1. 1, no. 2

Follow this and additional works at: https://repository.law.umich.edu/class_pubs

Part of the Legal Education Commons

Recommended Citation

"Bulletin, vo1. 1, no. 2" (1894). Yearbooks & Class Year Publications. 145.
https://repository.law.umich.edu/class_pubs/145

This Newsletter is brought to you for free and open access by the Law School History and Publications at University of Michigan Law School Scholarship Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in Yearbooks & Class Year Publications by an authorized administrator of University of Michigan Law School Scholarship Repository. For more information, please contact mLaw.repository@umich.edu.

THE BULLETIN

A leaflet issued periodically by the Law Class of '94, U. of M. Please send all communications to H. W. Webber, President, 52 Broadway, New York City.

Vol. 1.

New York City, MAY, 1920

No. 2.

HAVE YOU PAID YOUR DUES?

The "dues" fixed for the year 1920 are $5.00. Those for next year, if any, will be nominal, subject to the approval of the class council. This amount is made necessary this year by the proposed publication of the new class directory, besides the usual expenses of carrying on the class organization and publication of THE BULLETIN. Every dollar is accounted for; the Treasurer made his report at the class meeting last reunion, which was audited and passed, and this practice will be strictly followed hereafter. Please bear in mind that the funds of the class are paid out only for actual necessary disbursements. The officers of the class not alone pay their "dues," but, what is more in this period of H. C. L., give their valuable time gratis in carrying on the work of the organization.

We regret that there are '94 Laws who have never contributed a penny toward the up-keep of the organization. We do not condemn them. We are only sorry. May the good angel whisper into their ears that although their interest is nil, it is at least worth while to help along a good thing, especially where there is ever the possibility of an awakening from a state of prolonged apathy. Cicero said the older we grow the harder it becomes to make friends. As the immediate ones pass away, you would have us to fall back on, that is, if we get your financial aid to continue, for the engine cannot keep going without fuel!

We wish to remind those who have an interest in the class and fail to contribute that it takes money to pay printing bills and postage; your fellow classmates have paid these in the past; are you willing that they should do so in the future without your help?

We appreciate the prompt responses by many. To those who have not remitted because of oversight, &c., please let this be a gentle reminder.

PRESIDENT-ELECT BURTON

Laws '94 join with other alumni organizations in welcoming Professor Burton, who is soon to assume the Presidency of our University. At the same time we extend to President Hutchins our sincere wishes for many years of good health and happiness.

THE NEW DIRECTORY

The publication of a new class directory will depend wholly upon how soon sufficient funds come into the treasury to pay for its cost of publication. The proposed new work will be a directory in every sense of the word. Its predecessor was more than that: that combined the function of a class book or Who's Who with that of a directory. So, preserve your Who's Who!

The '95 Laws have published their fourth directory. We are indebted to William C. Michaels, Esq., Secretary, for a copy of each of their third and fourth editions.

What our new directory will contain has not been definitely decided upon. It is our purpose to confine our class roll to graduates, and to those who registered with our class who show an interest in, and a disposition to support, our class organization.

REUNION OF LAW '95

Our Juniors, Laws '95, are getting ready for a rousing time, to celebrate their quarter-centennial. They have written us for suggestions, which we have cheerfully given. All hail to their endeavors, with best wishes for a great turn-out!

The approaching reunion season brings back fond recollections of our own silver jubilee. Can anyone ever forget it? Those who were there are wishing it were taking place this year. Cheer up, old scout, there'll be another, in 1924! And it will be a big one. Many who were not at the last will surely be there besides all of the boys who were at the Quarter Centennial.

THE BULLETIN

MISSING!

- M. D. Bryce, Marquette, Mich.,
- Rex R. Case, Detroit, Mich.,
- L. H. Chatterson, Detroit, Mich.,
- G. M. Evans, Fort Gratiot, Mich.,
- C. A. McKnight, Grand Rapids, Mich.,
- J. A. Harris, Munroe, Utah,
- J. H. Kiley, Monroe, Mich.,
- H. E. Root, Mason, Mich.,
- C. H. Towle, Chicago, Ill.

Please lend us a hand in locating the above. Only a small effort on your part may enable us to cross off one of them on the list. The marks of a valuable directory are completeness and accuracy. We have classmates in or near the places from which the above men registered when they entered law school, and they especially can be of the most useful aid in ascertaining officially whether any of the above are either dead or alive, and, if living, their present addresses. The more searching this inquiry, the more satisfactory will be your class directory.

COMMUNICATIONS TO YE EDITOR

"Congratulations on your 'BULLETIN' just received. You are making a record as I know of no other class up to date, which has been able to put Volume 1, Number 1, at the head of its official publication. I trust you will be able to keep up the good work."

Wilfred B. Shaw,
Editor, The Michigan Alumnus.

"I am delighted to welcome No. 1, of Volume 1, of the BULLETIN."
Earl D. Babst, New York.

"The BULLETIN is fine."
Hon. A. J. Tuttle, Detroit.

"Hope you keep up the BULLETIN. We should have it to keep our class interest alive."
M. J. Dillon, Galena, Ill.

"It will do wonders to keep up the class spirit and keep fellows in touch with one another."
Fred W. Smith, Detroit.

"I was greatly interested in perusing the BULLETIN. It was pleasing to note that our old friend McCourtie, after having patiently dug through a stratum of cement, has now struck oil. I had the pleasure of a call from Judge Burr on an occasion of one of his trips West; also a visit from Charles A. Park, who continues as President of the Salem Water, Light & Power Company, of Salem, Oregon. Not long ago I enjoyed a very pleasant visit with Gilbert W. Phelps, District Judge at Pendleton, Oregon, who is regarded as one of the ablest in the State."

C. E. Cochran, Portland, Ore.
"I like your little BULLETIN and hope to receive it often."
D. A. Edwards, Washington.

NEWS ABOUT CLASSMATES

Henry C. Walters is President of the Detroit Bar Association.

James J. Sheridan has been made attorney for the National Bank of the Republic, of Chicago.

We have heard from reliable sources that Torazo Kikuchi is practicing law at No. 1 Balfour Road, Shanghai, China, is prospering and is in excellent health. Torazo, why do you not drop us a line, for old times' sake?

Philip Henry Waters (colored), who attended the law school in our Junior year, died at Charleston, W. Va., recently, where he was Deputy Clerk of Court.

The following is an extract from the New York Commercial and Financial World, of February 7th, 1920:—

"At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Michigan State Telephone Company, held January 30th, 1920, Judge Franz C. Kuhn, who recently resigned his seat on the State Supreme Court Bench, was elected President of the Company.

"No better selection than that of Judge Kuhn could possibly have been made. He is a man of most distinguished standing and of long and honorable record and is looked up to and respected by everybody. His knowledge of public utilities, and of their relation to the community, especially equips him for the bringing about of a better understanding between the two and rendering possible a square deal to all."

Vladimir A. Geringer was appointed U. S. Trade Commissioner to Czecho-Slovakia.

Dennis B. Hayes, Detroit, with his family spent the winter in California.

Homer D. Messick was recently elected one of the Vice Presidents of the Citizens Savings & Trust Company, of Cleveland.