STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

The central mission of the Michigan Journal of Gender & Law is to create a feminist legal publication that will help expand and develop legal discourse beyond traditional boundaries. The Journal is dedicated to providing a forum for exploring how gender issues and related issues of race, class, sexual orientation, and culture impact the lives of women and men. The Journal seeks to compare, contrast, and combine theoretical and practical perspectives on gender issues in order to provide a bridge between theory and practice. To achieve these purposes, the Journal will publish the views of legal scholars, social scientists, practitioners, students, and others. It is our hope that different views, however passionately held, will all receive discussion within the Journal. We welcome the submissions and responses of our readers.

PUBLICATION POLICY

The Michigan Journal of Gender & Law accepts a variety of written works. We are interested in both traditional and non-traditional pieces that explore gender issues in the law. Written pieces may include, but are not limited to, traditional law journal articles, book reviews, briefs or other legal documents, speeches, critiques, and fiction pieces.

The goal of the Michigan Journal of Gender & Law is to provide a forum for diverse voices. The Journal wishes to promote equal recognition of all authors and encourage the publication of pieces based on diverse experiences and viewpoints. In keeping with this goal, the Journal is committed to publishing the works of activists, students, practitioners, and others, as well as traditional academics. Published pieces are not distinguished on the basis of the author's educational and/or occupational background.
