ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The articles in this issue result from the Colloquy on Products Liability: Comprehensive Discussions on the Restatement (Third) of Torts: Products Liability held at the University of Michigan Law School in May 1996. The University of Michigan Journal of Law Reform would like to thank the Product Liability Advisory Council Foundation for their generous grant which made the Symposium possible. The PLAC Foundation provides grants and active assistance for activities that encourage the fair development and application of products liability law. Through its ALI Project Action Group, the Foundation has had the privilege of providing commentary on drafts of the Restatement (Third). The Foundation believes that the articles in this issue will be of substantial value to the judiciary and legal profession in the interpretation and application of the Restatement (Third).
