LEGAL AID CONFLAGRATION AID

As a result of the fire at the Legal Aid Offices on Tuesday night, everything in the office has been destroyed. This represents the loss of approximately 1500 open cases, most of which are active cases with clients having real and pressing needs.

In order to reconstruct, as best as possible, the case records we have lost, initially we need from all students who have been working at the clinic the names and numbers of all their active files. This information will enable us to find the appropriate court file and make copies (if we can find money to pay for the copies). Any help those students can give in contacting the clients using the available names and numbers and in reconstructing the substance of the legal problem involved will be greatly appreciated.

Anyone desiring or willing to assist in any way will be accommodated joyously. Please contact Terry Adams in Room 217 if you wish to help.

LORRAINE BEEBE WILL SPEAK

Lorraine Beebe, former Michigan State Senator, one of the organizers of the national women's political caucus, and plaintiff in the Michigan abortion suit, will speak Wednesday, November 17, at 8 P.M. in the Law Club Lounge. The Women Law Students welcome all members of the law school community -- staff, students, and faculty -- to hear her talk.

GRIDDIE GOODIES

Last week's winner was Lewis Taffer who thereby became the SGGDW (Second Griddle Goodie Double Winner). The week before Mike Georgian (or something like that) won to become---that's right---the FGGDW! Incidentally, Mrs. Limpy missed on 3 which was better than all but 3 entrants.
