LAW QUADRANGLE

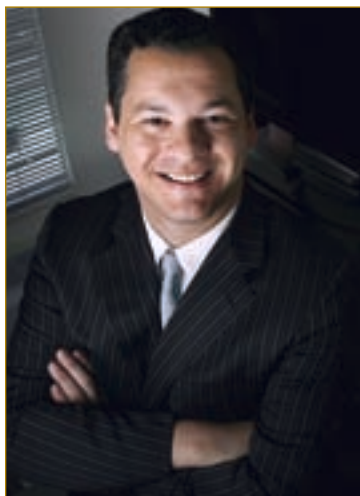

FALL 2007

Groundbreaking grads

Ninety years apart, Michigan Law graduates Branch Rickey, '11, and Jared Genser, '01, show that freeing major league baseball from segregation and prisoners of conscience from oppressive regimes' prison cells have more in common than you may think.

Clearing the air

David Uhlmann used to prosecute environmental villains. Now he’s building Michigan Law’s new Environmental Law and Policy Program into a magnet for law students who want to keep a touch of green about them. – Page 52
