Global Leadership in Law

Michigan Law has been in the forefront of legal education since its founding in 1859. That means we've got much to celebrate when we kick off our sesquicentennial celebration in January 2009 with journeys through our history and forays into our future. You can enter the wonderful world of our celebration through the "History and Traditions" web page.

We'll be adding to it regularly so we invite you to come back often.
