LAWYERS CLUB TO HOST CHIEF JUSTICE OF EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES COURT

On Wednesday February 21st Mr. Andreas Donner, Chief Justice (President) of the Court of Justice of the European Communities will be visiting the Law School. He will meet the students at a tea in the Lawyers Club lounge on that day from 4:45 p.m. to 5:45 p.m. where he will make a statement and answer questions about the new European law that is being developed by his court and about the Common Market. All students who would like to meet or chat with Mr. Donner are encouraged to attend.

Mr Donner was born in Rotterdam and obtained his Doctor of Laws at Amsterdam University. Since 1945 he has been Professor of Public and Administrative Law at the Free University of Amsterdam, and has written a number of works on that area. Mr. Donner is a member of the Royal Netherlands Academy of Sciences and in 1958 was appointed Chief Justice, Court of Justice of the European Communities.

9,610 WATCH LAW CLUB B-BALL

Law Clubbers beat Michigan Frosh 71-51. Prepare for Canadian Game.

Before a capacity Yost Field House crowd of 9,610 people, the Law Club Basketball Team (plus two friends) romped over the University of Michigan Freshmen team 71-51. This spectacular was followed by a pick-up game between the Michigan varsity and a virtually unknown team from Ohio called the Buckeyes, which some of the crowd stayed around to watch as they discussed the fine play of the "Club" (as the Law School team has become known in sports parlance).

The starting Law Club contingent consisting of Larry McCormack, Emmett McCarthy, Joe McDade, John Tully, and Pete Tillitson, through control of the boards and the execution of play patterns with precision slowly built up the lead over the dazed freshmen who couldn't believe that there would be this much life left in the old men. Substituting frequently into the smooth flowing Club offense were John Rosengren, Pat Wilson, and two non-Law School "ringers", M.C. Barton and Paul Grossky, who was captain of the Michigan varsity back in 1955 when his present opponents were still trading bubble gum cards in grade school. The explanation given by Coach McCormack for the frequent substituting was that the boys were a little "tight" after the long exam layoff, but rumor drifted through the crowd that it was due to the fact that some of the starters may be a little out of shape; Tully, and McCarthy having been seen in the local beer halls way past the 9:00 p.m. curfew quite often in recent weeks.

The Law Club held a 20 point lead at half-time, but midway through the second half this was cut to 10 points and things looked bad. But with the end in sight, the boys took heart and regained their old lead of 20 by a means usually reserved for younger men, i.e. the fast break.

On the afternoon of February 16, Athletic Chairman Joe Koucky has arranged a basketball program international in scope, in which the Law Club will play Osgood Hall Law School of Toronto, Canada. Constituting the Law Club team for this game will be Tully, McCormac, and McCarthy, plus selected players from other teams connected with the Law School, the Phids, Delts, and Trusts. The reason given as to why the team which was victorious over the Freshmen is not being carried over intact to play the Canadians is that word has come down from the Administration to keep the score down so as not to destroy good relations with our legalistic neighbors to the North.

A VISIT WITH MR MILES SHILLINGFORD

Mr. Miles Shillingford, 24, of Worcester College, Oxford University, is one instructor quite a few of the Juniors in the Law School may have met in the course of their travels through Problems and Research this year.

Mr. Shillingford was born in Northern Ireland, spent the war years there, attended an English private school in Bristol, England, and after graduation at eighteen, entered the British Army. He went through his officers training in England, and was assigned to the West Africa Frontier Force and sent to Sierra Leone, W. Africa, as a Second Lieutenant.

Sierra Leone is a poor tropical country engaging primarily in agriculture. In the interior there are diamond mines, which are mined under a concession by English companies, and natives from French Guinea sporadically enter the ceded land and sift for diamonds. When the police attempt to evict them, emotional, drunken, and well-executed riots sometimes occur, and the Army, the British officers and native troops of the Frontier Force, restore order. Outside of these disturbances, and keeping an eye on the smuggling of diamonds via neighboring Liberia, which frustrates somebody's tax collector, life is quiet and is spent on the magnificent beaches at the coast.

Upon his discharge, Mr. Shillingford spent three years at Oxford travelling extensively while there, and graduated in 1961. He returns to England this summer, and will take the Bar Examination to become a Barrister in September.

T.V. LISTINGS COMING

Starting next week Res Gestae will follow in the footsteps of the great city newspapers and present the local T.V. listings. Of course, our television is "very local", consisting of the entire day and night proceedings in Judge Breakey's circuit courtroom. Due to George Washington's birthday and to floor wax in the county building next week's court docket is a little indefinite. So, barring further following of big city newspaper precedents (employee's strike or employer lockout) look for the Washtenaw Circuit Court Docket in the next issue of Res Gestae.

FRATERNITY FUNCTIONS

The Phids will issue forth with their traditional call to Spring at a Sunday Afternoon Party this coming Sunday afternoon (of all times). Quite exciting refreshments will be distributed to the beautiful strains of some band from somewhere. "O Spring, come melt the snow and ice off our beautiful bent grass lawn, but don't make it so muddy that my car sinks in up to the hubcaps."
