IN MEMORIAM:
WILLIAM W. BISHOP, JR.

PART I

The community of the University of Michigan Law School mourns the passing of William W. Bishop, Jr. His opinions as a legal officer in the United States Department of State guided the United States during a period of profound challenge to international law; his contributions as a "most highly qualified publicist" became standards of legal scholarship; his patient guidance as a teacher led a generation of students through the transforming world order; and his lasting warmth as mentor and colleague enriched those who knew him. We are honored to present this two-part collection, and hope that the diverse contributions of this Memorial will become a lasting addition to international legal scholarship in his name.

We thank the authors for their generous response to our solicitation and their continuing cooperation. In addition, we would like especially to thank Professors Joseph H.H. Weiler, John H. Jackson, Eric Stein, and Bruno M. Simma, of the University of Michigan Law School, and Dr. Elizabeth S. Bishop, daughter of Professor Bishop, for their devoted assistance in publishing this Memorial.

Charitable contributions in Professor Bishop's name may be directed to the University of Michigan Law School Fund.
