THE STUDENT BAR ASSOCIATION OF THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN LAW SCHOOL

Vol. 8

Thursday, October 30, 1958

No. 4

JUNIOR CASE CLUB ORAL ARGUMENTS ARE BEING CONCLUDED THIS AFTERNOON.

The selections for the Campbell Competition will be announced Wednesday, November 5. The first round is scheduled to be heard after the Thanksgiving recess..... The freshman competition begins Monday afternoon. Everyone is welcome to attend any of the arguments..... The regional round of the 8th Annual National Moot Court Competition will be held in Detroit, November 14 and 15. In the first round Michigan's petitioners will face Western Michigan, and the respondents will oppose the University of Detroit. Last year Michigan's team won the regionals and went on to the semi-finals in New York.

VOLUME 57 OF THE MICHIGAN LAW REVIEW WILL MAKE ITS FIRST APPEAR-

ANCE in the latter part of November. Featured articles will be by Professor Archibald Cox of Harvard Law School on "The Legal Nature of Collective Bargaining Agreements" and by Professor B. J. George of Michigan Law School on "Scientific Investigation and Defendants Rights".

THE STUDENT BAR ASSOCIATION ANNOUNCED THE FORMATION OF A STUDENT-

FACULTY LIAISON COMMITTEE. Committee members include 5 seniors: Dudley Ferguson, chairman, Dan Purdy, Dave Shute, Bill Slye, Hillary Snell; and 2 juniors: Dean Barry and Bob Wray. It is hoped that through this committee a closer relationship between the students and the faculty will be established as well as providing the faculty with a cross section of student opinion on academic problems. Suggestions or remarks regarding any of the problems within the scope of this committee will be welcomed by any of the members.

THE LAWYERS CLUB FALL DANCE IS BEING SCHEDULED FOR NOVEMBER 22

by Bob Johnson, social chairman. Volunteers to help with the arrangements will be appreciated..... A debate between four members of the faculty is being planned for December 4 in the lounge..... There will be an open house after the Iowa game this Saturday.

FRATERNITIES: Last rushing function will be a luncheon by the TERS at the Union tomorrow, Friday. Bids will be issued by all the fraternities Monday, November 3. DELTS, PHIDS and PADS will all have open houses after the football game. The DELTS have a party planned for Saturday night and the PADS an open house..... The DELTS remained an undefeated football team by edging the Law Club 8-6. DELTS play Alpha Chi Sigma this week in the final game of the regular season. The winner of this game will advance to the playoffs. The PHIDS were scored on the first time this season but kept their undefeated record, winning 16-6. They will wind up the regular season with a game Thursday night.

PETITIONS FOR FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICES MUST BE SUBMITTED BY MIDNIGHT TONIGHT IN L-43. The election, arranged by the S.B.A., will be held November 5.

FACULTY NEWS: Eric Stein, Professor of International Law, traveled in Europe this summer gathering information on the perils of U.S. business abroad. New and proposed plans for organizations similar to the European Coal and Steel Community present problems which Professor Stein will discuss in his forthcoming book on European unification.....Professors Yntema and Conard were in Belgium for a meeting of the Institute on Comparative Law recently. This meeting has been held every summer for the past three years to enable scholars to discuss current issues of comparative law.

EXTRA CONCERT SERIES: ISAAC STERN, violinist, will be at Hill Auditorium Wednesday, November 5. The concert will begin at 8:30 p.m.
