

Law Quadrangle (formerly Law Quad Notes)

Volume 10 | Number 3

Article 4

Spring 1966

Law School Fund National Committee Has Annual Meeting

University of Michigan Law School

Follow this and additional works at: <https://repository.law.umich.edu/lqnotes>

Recommended Citation

University of Michigan Law School, Law School Fund National Committee Has Annual Meeting, 10 Law Quadrangle (formerly Law Quad Notes) - (1966).

Available at: <https://repository.law.umich.edu/lqnotes/vol10/iss3/4>

This Alumni Note is brought to you for free and open access by University of Michigan Law School Scholarship Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in Law Quadrangle (formerly Law Quad Notes) by an authorized editor of University of Michigan Law School Scholarship Repository. For more information, please contact mlaw.repository@umich.edu.

QUAD BRIEFS

"POLITICS AND THE INDEPENDENT REGULATORY COMMISSION" was the Thomas M. Cooley Lecture theme, given in February, by William L. Cary, Dwight Professor of Law at Columbia University and former chairman of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Participating in a concluding discussion, above, are: Culp Davis, John P. Wilson Professor of Law, University of Chicago; Professor Cary; Moderator, Professor Roger C. Cramton of the Law School; Nathaniel Nathanson, Professor of Law, Northwestern University; and Frank Newman, Dean and Professor of Law, University of California.

EDITORS OF THE MICHIGAN LAW REVIEW, pictured with Acting Dean Charles Joiner, are: Front row, left to right, Sally Katzen, editor-in-chief, and Duane A. Feurer. Back row, left to right, Hurst K. Groves, administrative editor; Edward W. Harris; James M. Amend; John A. Sebert, Jr.; J. Larry Nichols; and Joseph H. Ballway, Jr.

PROFESSOR ERIC STEIN, center, introduces the Hon. Leonard Meeker, legal advisor of the State Department, right, and Professor Wolfgang Friedmann, professor of international law at Columbia University, left, guests of the International Law Society last month in the Lawyers' Club. They spoke on "Intervention and Subversion in International Law and Relations: The Problems of Vietnam and the Dominican Republic."

Law School Fund National Committee Has Annual Meeting

The National Committee of the Law School Fund met Saturday, March 26, in Hutchins Hall for its fifth annual meeting. About 40 persons attended.

The functions of the National Committee are to: establish a continuous annual fund program for the use of the Law School; encourage regular voluntary contributions from alumni and friends; recommend to the Law School needs that can be met through gifts, grants, or bequests; cooperate with the Lawyers' Club, and coordinate its activities with those of the University Development Council.

The National Chairman re-elected for next year is Emmett Eagan of Detroit. He served last year as National Chairman and also was Wayne County Chairman in the 1961, '62, and '63 campaigns. The new National Vice-Chairman is Benjamin M. Quigg, Jr., of Philadelphia; John H. Morrow of Birmingham, Alabama, was elected Class Vice-Chairman; and John S. Tennant of New York was reelected Special Gifts Chairman.

Acting Dean Charles W. Joiner reported on the financial results of the 1965 campaign. He reported that 2,573 alumni gave $161,139 in 1965. Assistant Dean Roy Proffitt also spoke on the 1965 campaign and introduced Emmett Eagan.

The new Dean of the Law School, Francis Allen, spoke at the luncheon held at the Michigan Union. He noted that funds donated by alumni have permitted flexibility and freedom for the Law School and have offered alternatives that might not otherwise be possible. He concluded that it would be difficult to conceive the operation of the School without it.

The regional chairmen who will head the campaign next fall and their areas are: Norman Bowersox, New York City; Benjamin Quigg, Philadelphia; John Morrow, Birmingham, Alabama; John Elam, Columbus, Ohio; William Welch, Indianapolis; Robert A. Stuart, Springfield, Illinois; Carl Enggas, Kansas City, Missouri; Richard Young, Denver; Philip Westbrook, Los Angeles; Paul R. Trigg, Detroit; Russell Bowers, Flint, Michigan. •