Michigan Journal of Gender & Law

Michigan Journal of Gender & Law is a feminist legal publication that endeavors to expand and develop legal discourse beyond traditional boundaries.

We seek submissions that explore how gender issues and related issues of race, class, sexual orientation, and culture impact lives.

Written works may include traditional law journal articles, book reviews, briefs or other legal documents, speeches, critiques, poetry, and fiction pieces that explore gender issues in the law.

Publication Policy
The Journal seeks to improve the law and its administration by providing a forum for discussion that identifies contemporary issues for reform efforts, proposes concrete means to accomplish change, and evaluates the impact of law reform. As contributions to this discussion, the Journal also welcomes multidisciplinary and empirical work.

We encourage the submission of unsolicited manuscripts for publication via Scholastica or to jlr-submissions@umich.edu. Articles should generally conform to The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation (19th ed. 2010) and The Chicago Manual of Style (16th ed. 2010).

Views expressed in the Journal are those of the authors and not necessarily those of the editorial staff.

Subscriptions
The current subscription rate is $40.00 domestic and $45.00 foreign. All business inquiries should be made to JLR-Business@umich.edu. Subscribers should report the nonreceipt of copies within six months of the mailing date.
