The Online Companion of the Michigan Law Review

Call for Submissions

The editors of the Michigan Law Review invite essay submissions on current areas of legal thought and research for First Impressions, our online publication.

First Impressions publishes op-ed style articles by academics, judges, practitioners, and law students, as well as timely responses to articles in the print journal of the Michigan Law Review. Our online companion quickly disseminates the legal community's initial impressions of important judicial decisions and legislative developments.

First Impressions prefers submissions under 3,000 words and cannot accept essays over 3,500 words. Submissions should be written in a style accessible to a general audience of practitioners and policymakers. Pieces will be published on an expedited production schedule.

Legal Writing in Plain English

Second Edition

A Text with Exercises

Bryan A. Garner

"Interspersed with rules of good writing is a revolutionary manifesto packaged in a plain gray wrapper. This book won't draw attention merely by sitting on your shelf, but if you put certain pieces of its advice in the next legal document you draft, you are sure to raise the eyebrows of any lawyer who reads it."—Trial
