MONTHLY PERIODICAL INDEX

This department lists the articles and comments which appear in leading law reviews. The index embraces material published since the last issue of this REVIEW.

Limitation of space makes necessary the inclusion of only the longer and more important items: articles and comments. Accordingly, decision notes (except those over five pages in length), book reviews and biographical articles are excluded.

(a) indicates a leading article. Where the title of the article or comment is not self-explanatory, an indication of its scope is added in brackets.

SEVENTH SERIES OF THOMAS M. COOLEY LECTURES

The seventh series of Thomas M. Cooley Lectures will be given at the University of Michigan Law School by Professor Frederick Henry Lawson on November 16 to 20, inclusive, at 4:15 P.M. in Room 120 of Hutchins Hall. Dr. Lawson is University Professor of Comparative Law at Oxford University, England, and is rated on two continents as one of the leading experts on comparative law. He is the author of numerous scholarly publications, and is a barrister-at-law of Gray's Inn. In 1951 he delivered the third series of the Hamlyn Lectures at the University of London on "The Rational Strength of English Law." These lectures are now published in book form. His subject for the series of Cooley lectures is "A Common Lawyer Looks at the Civil Law." The titles of the individual lectures are as follows:

- I The Historical Background
- II The Form and Sources of the Civil Law
- III The Contribution of Roman Law
- IV The Advance Beyond Roman Law
- V Non-Roman Elements in the Civil Law

The Cooley Lectureship was established by the Faculty of the University of Michigan Law School in honor of its first great legal scholar, Thomas M. Cooley, Professor and Dean of the Law School, justice of the Michigan Supreme Court, and author of the classic treatises, Constitutional Limitations and Torts. The lectureship is made possible by the William W. Cook Endowment for Legal Research. Past lecturers have been Professor Henry Rottschaefer, University of Minnesota, The Constitution and Socio-Economic Change; Professor Burke Shartel, University of Michigan, Our Legal System and How It Operates; Professor Zechariah Chafee, Jr., Harvard University, Some Problems in Equity; Dean E. Blythe Stason, University of Michigan, Administrative Discretion and Its Control; Professor Hessel E. Yntema, University of Michigan, Perspectives in Conflicts Law; Dean William L. Prosser, University of California, Selected Topics on the Law of Torts. The first three lecture series have been published in book form by the University of Michigan Law School.

The lectures are open to the public. A special invitation is extended to members of the bar.
