

CONTENTS

CHAPTER

Origin and History of Expressed Trusts.

	PAGE
§ 1. Origin and history of uses.....	1
§ 2. Statute of Uses and its effects.....	1
§ 3. Uses not affected by the Statute of Uses.....	2
§ 4. Ways in which express trusts may be created.....	2
§ 5. Express trusts a part of equity jurisdiction.....	3
§ 6. Advantages of trusts at the present time.....	3
§ 7. Two meanings of the word "trustee".....	3

CHAPTER II

Nature and Requisites of Express Trusts

Trust Distinguished from Bailment

§ 8. Reason for distinguishing trusts from other legal relations.....	4
§ 9. Similarities.....	4
§ 10. Differences.....	4

Trust Distinguished from Debt

§ 11. Similarities.....	4
§ 12. Differences.....	5
§ 13. A trust changed into a debt.....	5
§ 14. Test of determining whether a debt or a trust.....	6
§ 15. Trustee liable also as debtor.....	6

Trust Distinguished from Contract for the Benefit of Third Person

§ 16. In American law.....	7
§ 17. In English law.....	7

Trust of Chose in Action Distinguished from Assignment

§ 18. Similarities.....	8
§ 19. Differences.....	8

Trust Distinguished from Executorship

§ 20. Similarities.....	9
§ 21. Differences.....	9

Language Necessary to Creation of Trust

§ 22. Mandatory words.....	10
§ 23. Precatory words.....	10

CONTENTS

	PAGE
Consideration
§ 24. Meaning of consideration.....	11
§ 25. Requirement of consideration in the law of uses.....	11
§ 26. Covenant to stand seized.....	11
§ 27. Consideration in the law of trusts.....	12
§ 28. Effect of ex parte pye . Limitation of the doctrine.....	12
§ 29. Exception in the United States in favor of a wife.....	13
Statute of Frauds
§ 30. Writing unnecessary apart from statute.....	13
§ 31. Usual provisions of the Statute of Frauds.....	14
§ 32. Construction of the statute.....	14
§ 33. The proper party to sign the memorandum.....	14
Subject-Matter of a Trust
§ 34. The general rule.....	15
§ 35. Exceptions.....	15
Cestui Que Trust
§ 36. Who may be a cestui que trust.....	15
§ 37. Public or charitable trusts.....	15
§ 38. Private trusts—must not last indefinitely.....	16
§ 39. Private trusts— cestui not capable of enforcing.....	16
§ 40. Private trusts— cestui indefinite.....	16
The Trustee
§ 41. Who may be a trustee.....	17
§ 42. Appointment of trustee by court.....	17
§ 43. Removal of trustee.....	18
§ 44. Liability of an infant trustee.....	18
§ 45. Disclaimer by trustee.....	18
§ 46. Same effect on cestui's rights.....	19
Notice to Cestui Que Trust
§ 47. Notice not necessary.....	19

CHAPTER III

Nature of Cestui Que Trust's Interest

Claim Purely Equitable, Except When Account Would Lie at Common Law

§ 48. Cestui's remedy against the trustee.....	20
§ 49. Liabilities of trustee in covenant and special assumpsit.....	20
§ 50. The trustee may recover against the cestui in ejectment or in trover.....	21

Cestui Que Trust is Claimant against Trustee—Not Owner of the Trust Res

§ 51. Cestui's claim enforceable regardless of the situs of the trust property.....	21
§ 52. Jurisdiction of the property alone not sufficient for the enforcement of cestui's claim.....	22
§ 53. Remedies of the cestui . Common-law remedies of the cestui against third person.....	22

CONTENTS

	PAGE
§ 54. Remedies against third person in equity. Meaning of equitable title	23
§ 55. Remedy of cestui que trust if the trustee refuses to sue the third person.....	23
§ 56. Suits by third persons against trustee.....	24
§ 57. Burdens of ownership fall upon trustee.....	24
§ 58. Remedy of cestui que trust who is in possession of the trust res	25
§ 59. Remedy of trustee against a joint wrongdoer.....	25
§ 60. Cestui barred by laches of trustee.....	26
§ 61. Cestui cannot vote as owner of the trust property.....	27
§ 62. Cestui que trust of an obligation cannot discharge the obligor.....	27
§ 63. Purchaser of trust property not bound to see to the application of the purchase money.....	28
§ 64. Set-off between obligor and trustee. Equitable set-off.....	28

CHAPTER IV

Resulting and Constructive Trusts

Classification of Trusts

§ 65. Classification of trusts according to form.....	29
§ 66. Classification of trusts according to intent.....	29
§ 67. Practical importance of the distinction between resulting and constructive trusts.....	30

Purchase-Money-Resulting Trusts

§ 68. Origin and history.....	30
§ 69. The general rule.....	31
§ 70. Limitations of the rule.....	32
§ 71. Rebutting the presumption. Conveyance to wife or child.....	32
§ 72. Resulting trust in favor of creditors.....	33
§ 73. Criticism of the presumption. Statutory changes.....	33

Resulting Trust Where Intended Trust Cannot Take Effect

§ 74. Intended trust void for uncertainty.....	34
§ 75. Intended trust void because of lapse of cestui's interest.....	34
§ 76. Intended trust void because of illegality.....	34
§ 77. Rule where the grantor was paid for the conveyance.....	34
§ 78. Nature of the trusts in this section.....	35

Where the Conveyance to the Trustee is without Consideration

§ 79. The law as to uses.....	36
§ 80. No resulting trust.....	36
§ 81. Whether a constructive trust in such cases.....	37
§ 82. Criticism of the American doctrine. Basis of constructive trusts..	37
§ 83. Same—discussion of analogous cases.....	38
§ 84. Same—further analogous cases.....	38

Where an Expressed Trust Fails to Exhaust Entire Property Transferred to Trustee

§ 85. The general rule.....	39
§ 86. A devise subject to a trust.....	39

CONTENTS

PAGE

Where Property is Acquired by One Person by Wrongful Use of Property of Another

§ 87. Purchase of property by trustee or other fiduciary for his own benefit	40
§ 88. Purchase of property by thief, converter, or disseizor	41
§ 89. The correct view upon principle	42
§ 90. Mingling of trust funds with the trustee's own property	43
§ 91. Cestui que trust must trace funds to be entitled to a preference	43
§ 92. Modification of the foregoing rule	44
§ 93. Right of cestui where the trustee invests mixture in land	44

Where a Person Acquires an Interest in Property in Regard to Which, by Reason of His Fiduciary Position, He Has a Duty to Perform for Another

§ 94. Trustee or other fiduciary takes renewal of lease for his own benefit	45
§ 95. Same—another illustration	45
§ 96. Trustee or other fiduciary with authority to sell can not buy for himself	46
§ 97. Fiduciary with authority to buy can not buy for himself	47

Trust Imposed to Prevent Use of the Statute of Frauds and Statute of Wills as Instruments of Fraud

§ 98. Conveyance by deed upon oral trust	47
§ 99. General provision of the Statute of Wills	48
§ 100. Conveyance by will upon oral trust	48

Property Acquired through Fraud and Mistake by Non-Fiduciary

§ 101. Land obtained by fraud	49
§ 102. Chattels obtained by fraud	49
§ 103. Acquiring property by mistake	50

Property Acquired by Felony

§ 104. Murdering testator to prevent revocation of will	50
§ 105. Ancestor killed by heir to prevent his making a will	51

CHAPTER V

Transfer of Trust Property

By Act of the Party

(a) By Act of the Trustee

§ 106. The early law	52
§ 107. Modern law	52
§ 108. Limitation of the doctrine of constructive trusts— bona fide purchaser for value without notice	52
§ 109. Elements of bona fide purchaser for value without notice	53
§ 110. Part payment of purchase money before notice of the trust	54
§ 111. The doctrine of bona fide purchaser for value applied to mortgagees and pledgees	54

CONTENTS

	PAGE
§112. Purchaser with notice from bona fide purchasers for value without notice, and vice versa	55
§113. Purchaser with notice and volunteer distinguished.....	55
§114. Nature of the obligation of a bona fide volunteer.....	56
§115. The bona fide purchaser for value without notice need not have the conveyance made to himself.....	56
§116. Bona fide purchaser for value of negotiable and non-negotiable choses in action which are held in trust.....	56
§117. Bona fide purchase for value of equitable interests.....	57
(b) By Act of Cestui Que Trust
§118. Form of conveyance by cestui que trust	58
§119. Effect of successive assignments by cestui que trust	58
§120. Rule where subsequent assignment is to trustee.....	59
§121. Rule where subsequent assignee gets assignment of the legal title from the trustee.....	59
§122. Effect of success assignments by cestui where trustee has absolute discretion.....	60
By Death
(a) Death of the Trustee
§123. Rule where the trustee has heirs.....	61
§124. Rule where the trustee dies without heirs.....	62
(b) Death of Cestui Que Trust
§125. Rule where the cestui que trust has heirs.....	62
§126. Rule where the cestui dies without heirs.....	62
By Disseizin
§127. Disseizor not liable as constructive trustee.....	63
§128. Nature of cestui's rights.....	63
By Marriage
(a) Marriage of the Trustee
§129. Early law.....	63
§130. Modern rule.....	64
(b) Marriage of Cestui Que Trust
§131. Dower and curtesy.....	64
§132. Curtesy in wife's separate equitable estate.....	65
§133. Rights of husband of cestui que trust during coverture.....	65
By Bankruptcy
§134. Bankruptcy of trustee.....	66
§135. Bankruptcy of cestui que trust ; general rule.....	66
§136. Trust for the separate use of married women.....	67
§137. Trusts to apply income to cestui's support.....	67
§138. "Spendthrift trusts".....	68
§139. Limitation of the doctrine of spendthrift trusts.....	70

CONTENTS

By Act of Creditors

(a) Creditors of Trustee

	PAGE
§140. General rule.....	71
§141. Right of creditor where the claim is for property of which a trust estate has received the benefit.....	72

(b) Creditors of Cestui

§142. Rule as to priority.....	73
§143. Defects of machinery of common-law execution. Equitable execution.....	73
§144. Statutory changes.....	74

CHAPTER VI

Extinguishment of a Trust

§145. Various ways in which a trust may be extinguished.....	75
--	----

CHAPTER VII

Duties of a Trustee

Duty to Convey the Trust Res as the Cestui Que Trust Directs

§146. General rule.....	76
§147. Extreme illustration of trustee's duty to convey.....	76
§148. Validity of provision postponing the right of the cestui to a conveyance.....	77
§149. Rule in the United States.....	78

Duty to Put Cestui in Possession of Trust Res

§150. Cestui for life has no absolute right to the possession.....	79
--	----

Duty to Give Information in Regard to the Trust Res

§151. Extent of the duty.....	79
-------------------------------	----

Duty as to Investment of Trust Funds

§152. General nature of trustee's duty.....	80
§153. Rule where the creator of the trust authorizes certain investments..	80
§154. What investments are authorized by courts of equity.....	81
§155. Investments generally prohibited.....	82
§156. Right of the trustee to deposit trust money in a bank.....	82
§157. Placing money in the bank without adding the word "trustee"....	83
§158. Margin required in mortgage investments.....	83
§159. Converting unauthorized investments into authorized.....	84
§160. Collecting debts due the trust estate.....	84
§161. Extent of trustee's liability for breach of trust.....	85

Duty of Custody of the Trust Res

§162. Trustee generally liable only for due care, not an insurer.....	85
§163. Liability of custodians of public funds.....	86

CONTENTS

	PAGE
Duty Not to Delegate the Trust to Another
§164. General rule.....	86
§165. Transferee has no right to act as trustee.....	86
§166. Right of a majority of trustees to act.....	87
§167. Trustee can not delegate power of sale to another.....	88
§168. Trustee may employ broker in making investments.....	88