

Table of Contents

Volume I

	PAGE
FOREWORD AND ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	v
ANALYTICAL TABLE OF CONTENTS	xii
CHAPTER
I. AN AMERICAN LAWYER VIEWS EUROPEAN INTEGRATION: AN INTRODUCTION	Eric Stein 1
II. THE NEW INSTITUTIONS	Eric Stein 33
III. THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE CUSTOMS UNION (APPENDIX: THE EUROPEAN FREE TRADE ASSOCIATION)	Marc Quin 101
IV. EXCHANGE CONTROL REGULATIONS IN FRANCE	Fernand Charles Jeantet 189
V. INDUSTRIAL PROPERTY	Stephen P. Ladas 235
VI. LABOR LAW AND SOCIAL SECURITY	Otto Kahn-Freund 297
VII. NEW LEGAL REMEDIES OF ENTERPRISES: A SURVEY	Eric Stein and Peter Hay 459

Volume II

VIII. ORGANIZING FOR BUSINESS	Alfred F. Conard
IX. THE SIGNIFICANCE OF TREATIES TO THE ESTABLISHMENT OF COMPANIES	Thomas L. Nicholson
X. PROTECTION OF COMPETITION	Stefan A. Riesenfeld
XI. TAXATION	J. van Hoorn, Jr. and L. Hart Wright
XII. THE ASSOCIATION WITH OVERSEAS COUNTRIES AND TERRITORIES	Peter Hay
ANNEX EUROPEAN FREE TRADE ASSOCIATION, TEXT OF CONVENTION AND OTHER DOCUMENTS

Analytical Table of Contents for Volume I

	PAGE
CHAPTER I. AN AMERICAN LAWYER VIEWS EUROPEAN INTEGRATION: AN INTRODUCTION	I
I. A Perspective	I
A. A "Prophecy"	I
B. A Glance at History	2
C. Relevance of the Community for American Lawyers	4
II. Essential Elements of the European Economic Community	7
A. The Objectives of the Community and the E.F.T.A.	7
B. The Common Market vs. the Free Trade Area Arrangement	7
C. The Bases for "Common Policies" of the Community	9
D. The Timetable	12
E. The Geographic Scope of the Community	14
III. The Legal Framework of the European Economic Community	15
A. The Treaty: A Quadrilingual Labyrinth?	15
B. The Legal Nature of the European Economic Community	17
C. The Treaty as a "Constitution" and "Statute"	19
IV. Legal Problems for American Lawyers	20
A. Exporting to the Community	21
B. Doing Business in the Community	23
C. Conclusions	26
V. A Longer Range View	27
A. The Community and the Investment Climate	27
B. The United States and Europe	30

CHAPTER II. THE NEW INSTITUTIONS	33
I. The Council of Ministers: The Instrument of the Govern- ments	34
A. The Council as the Paramount Institution	34
B. The Voting Formula	36
C. The Composition of the Council	38
II. The Commission: The Community "Administration"	39
A. The Role of Initiative and Supervision	39
B. The Commissioners and Their Staff	40
C. Policy Makers or Administrators?	42
III. The Evolving Pattern of Council-Commission Rela- tions	44
A. The Treaty Procedure	44
B. The Evolving Practice	44
IV. Advisory Committees: The Voice of "Outside" Ex- perts and Special Interest Groups	46
V. The European Parliamentary Assembly: The Voice of the People?	51
A. Composition and Organization of the Assembly	51
B. International Assembly or Parliament?	55
C. The Working of the Assembly	57
D. The Assembly's "Political Control" over the Commission	58
E. The Assembly and the Council of Ministers: An Uneven Power Contest	61
F. The Assembly and the Member Governments	66
VI. The Court of Justice	68
A. Composition of the Court: The Judges and Ad- vocates General	68
B. The Jurisdiction of the Court	70
C. The Role of the Court	71
VII. Enterprises and the Community Institutions	73
A. Emergent Problems of the Scope of the "Law- Making" Power	73
1. How Much Implied Authority?	73
2. Regulation or Directive?	75

	PAGE
B. Legal Position of Enterprises in Proceedings Before Institutions	77
1. Quasi-Judicial Proceedings Before the Commission	77
2. "Law-Making" Proceedings	79
C. Organizing for Community Action	81
1. Community Level Organizations of Industry and Commerce	81
2. Community-Level Organizations of Labor	84
D. Effective Contact Points Between Institutions and Private Groups	86
1. Contacts with the Commission	86
2. Contacts with Advisory Committees of the Community	88
3. Contacts with Permanent Representatives, the Council and the Assembly	89
4. Contacts via National Governments	90
5. A Case of Inter-Action	91
VIII. Conclusions	92
Appendix—List of Selected Acts of the E.E.C. Council and Commission Issued During the First 18 Months of the Community's Existence	98
CHAPTER III. THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE CUSTOMS UNION	101
I. Introduction	101
II. Relations among the Six	107
A. Abolition of Tariffs	107
1. The Basic Customs Duties to Which the Treaty Rules Apply	107
2. The Timing of the Progressive Abolition of Customs Duties	107
3. Flexibility of the Rules Abolishing Internal Tariffs	109
4. Safeguards Against Excessive Flexibility	109
5. Methods of Implementation on January 1, 1959, of the Rules Abolishing Internal Tariffs	111

6.	Technical Problems of the Implementation of the Rules Abolishing Internal Tariffs	111
B.	The Abolition of Quotas	113
1.	The Rules of the Organization for European Economic Cooperation	113
2.	The Rules of the Treaty	114
3.	Flexibility of the Treaty Rules and the Safeguards Against Excessive Flexibility	115
4.	Implementation of the Rules Eliminating Quotas on January 1, 1959	117
5.	Technical Problems of the Implementation of the Rules Eliminating Quotas	119
C.	The Meaning of "Libre Pratique" Under the Treaty	121
D.	Clauses Providing Safeguards Against Difficulties Resulting from the Elimination of Quotas	126
1.	The Clause Providing Safeguards Against Balance-of-Payments Difficulties	126
2.	The Clause Providing Safeguards Against Difficulties in Particular Sectors of the National Economies	129
III.	The Relations of the Six with Third Countries	131
A.	The Establishment of the Common External Tariff	132
1.	Methods of Determining the Tariff	132
2.	Means of Implementation of the Provisions Concerning the Common External Tariff	134
3.	Technical Problems of Implementation of the Rules Establishing the External Tariff	136
4.	List G: External Tariff Items Yet to be Negotiated Among the Six	137
B.	The Liberalization of Trade with Third Countries	139
C.	Safeguard Clauses	145
D.	The Principles of the Common Commercial Policy	147
E.	The External Commercial Policy of the Community Since Its Creation	149
1.	Negotiations with Regard to a European Free Trade Area	149

	PAGE
2. Specific Measures Taken on January 1, 1959, with Regard to Third Countries	153
3. The Report of the European Commission on Future Relations of the Six with Other European Countries	156
4. The Problem of the Harmonization of Commercial Policies in Regard to Certain Countries	157
5. The Dillon Proposal for Reduction of the Tariffs of the Parties to G.A.T.T.	159
IV. Conclusions	161
A. Difficulty of Forming Judgments	161
B. Lessons Drawn from the Experience of the First Months of the Community	166
C. The United States and the Common Market	170
Appendix—The European Free Trade Association (E.F.T.A.) (The Little Area of the "Seven")	172
A. Abolition of Tariffs	174
B. Abolition of Quantitative Restrictions	175
C. Definition of Origin	177
D. Safeguard Clauses	180
1. Difficulties in the Balance of Payments	180
2. Difficulties Arising in a Particular Sector	183
E. Conclusions	186
CHAPTER IV. EXCHANGE CONTROL REGULATIONS IN FRANCE	189
I. A General Survey of Exchange Control Laws and Regulations	190
A. The Hierarchy of Texts	191
B. The General Effect of These Rules	192
C. The Authorizations Delivered by the Exchange Control Office	193
D. The Various Agencies	194
E. The Definition of the Term "Franc Area"	195
F. The Definition of "Residence"	196
G. The Meaning of Some Frequently Used Expressions	198

	PAGE
II. International Payments	198
A. Basic Rules	199
B. The Currency Market	201
C. Foreign Accounts in Francs	203
1. Convertible Accounts	204
2. Bilateral Accounts	204
III. International Trade	205
A. Origins of the Prohibition	205
B. The Rome Treaty and the Trend Towards Lib- eralization	206
C. Importation	207
D. Exportation	210
IV. French Investments Abroad	212
A. Evolution Since World War II	212
B. The Present Situation	213
C. A New Flexible Policy Concerning Assets Abroad	215
V. Foreign Investments in France	217
A. Basic Rules	217
B. Real Property	220
C. Stock, Bonds, and Debentures Quoted on the Paris Stock Exchange or on the Paris Brokers' Exchange	220
D. Private Investment in Companies Organized in France	221
E. Opening of a Branch in France	223
F. Loans	223
G. Effect of the E.E.C. Treaty	223
VI. Sanctions	224
A. Penal Sanctions	224
B. Civil Law Consequences	226
VII. Probable Evolution under the E.E.C. Treaty	228
A. French Law and Community Law	229
B. A Transitional Period	230
C. Probable Effect of a Transfer of Powers	232

CHAPTER V. INDUSTRIAL PROPERTY	235
I. Protection of Industrial Property	235
A. Introductory Remarks	235
B. Rome Treaty Provisions	237
C. Protection of Industrial Property Based on National Legislation and International Treaties	239
II. Patents	243
A. Patent Laws in the Common Market Countries	243
1. Administrative Procedure	244
2. Patentable Inventions	244
3. Subject Matter Restrictions	245
4. Annuities	246
5. Working Requirements	246
6. Duration of Patents	247
B. Possibilities of Unification or Harmonization of Patent Laws in the Common Market	247
C. Effects of Unification or Harmonization on American Interests	256
III. Industrial Designs and Models	257
A. Industrial Design and Model Laws in the Common Market Countries	257
1. Administrative Procedure	258
2. Subject Matter	259
3. Scope of the Right	259
4. Duration of Protection	259
B. Possibilities of Unification or Harmonization of Laws Relating to Designs in the Common Market	260
C. Effects of Unification or Harmonization of Laws on American Interests in Industrial Designs	261
IV. Trademarks	261
A. Trademark Laws in the Common Market Countries	261
1. Administrative Procedure	262
2. Registrability	263
3. Effects of Registration	263
4. User Requirements	264

	PAGE
5. Term of Registration	265
6. Assignments and Licenses	265
B. Possibilities of Unification or Harmonization of Trademark Laws in the Common Market	265
C. Effects of Unification or Harmonization of the Laws of the Six on American Interests in Trade- marks	269
V. Other Rights of Industrial Property	270
A. Protection of Trade Name	270
B. Repression of False Indications of Origin	272
C. Protection Against Unfair Competition	275
D. Protection of Know-How	277
1. Definition of Know-How	278
2. Nature of the Right in Know-How	279
3. Restrictive Clauses	281
VI. General Questions	282
A. Problems of Territorial Assignments and Li- censes in the Common Market	282
B. Rules Against Restraints of Competition and Their Effects on Industrial Property Rights	284
VIII. General Conclusions	290
A. The Likelihood That Changes in Industrial Prop- erty Law Will Occur	290
B. The Probable Kinds of Changes	290
C. Laws Which are Likely to be Harmonized	291
D. How Harmonization May be Effected	293
CHAPTER VI. LABOR LAW AND SOCIAL SECURITY	297
Introduction	297
I. The Impact of the Treaty on Labor Law and Social Security	298
A. General	298
B. The Approximation of Legislative and Adminis- trative Provisions	305
C. Cooperation in General	310
D. Social Security	319

	PAGE
1. The Regulations Concerning Migrant Workers	320
2. Assimilation of Social Security Legislation	324
E. Three Special Problems of Harmonization	325
1. Equality of the Sexes	326
2. Holidays with Pay	330
3. Working Hours and Overtime Pay	332
F. Freedom of Movement	338
1. The General Principle and Its Exceptions	338
2. Changes During the Transitional Period	344
3. Methods of Giving Effect to These Changes	348
4. Exchange of Young Workers	350
G. The European Social Fund	351
H. Conclusions	359
II. A Sketch Map of Labor Laws in the Six	361
A. The Role of Legislation	362
B. The Method and Legal Significance of Collective Bargaining	374
1. Bargaining by Employers' Association	375
2. Contractual and Institutional Bargaining	377
3. Union Structures and Ideologies	380
4. Law of Collective Bargaining in General—Freedom of Collective Bargaining and Its Restrictions	388
5. The Collective Agreement as a Contract	393
6. The Collective Agreement as a Legally Enforceable Code	396
7. The Extension of Collective Agreements	398
8. Sanctions and Publicity	401
C. Employee Representation in the Plant and in the Undertaking	402
D. Settlement of Conflicts	417
E. Protection of Employees in the Event of Dismissal	428
1. Periods of Notice	429
2. Grounds for Instantaneous Dismissal	432
3. Socially Unjustified Dismissals	434
4. Dismissals Subject to Consent	438

Appendix—Social Security Benefits: A Skeleton Survey	442
A. Belgium	442
1. Unemployment Insurance	442
2. Sickness, Disability, and Maternity Benefits	443
3. Family Allowances	443
4. Old Age and Survivors' Pensions	443
5. Accidents	444
B. France	444
1. General Observations	444
a. Organization	444
b. Financing	445
c. Coverage	445
2. Unemployment	445
3. Sickness, Maternity, and Disability Insurance	445
4. Family Allowances	446
5. Old Age and Survivors' Pensions	446
6. Industrial Accidents and Diseases	446
C. Germany	447
1. Unemployment Insurance	447
2. Sickness Benefit (Including Maternity Benefit and Death Grant)	447
3. Family Allowances	447
4. Pensions (Rentenversicherung)	448
5. Accident Insurance	448
D. Italy	449
1. General Observations	449
a. Organization	449
b. Financing	449
c. Coverage	450
2. Unemployment Insurance	450
3. Sickness, Maternity, and Funeral Benefits	450
4. Family Allowances	450
5. Disability, Old Age and Survivors' Benefits	451
6. Industrial Accidents and Diseases	451
E. Luxembourg	452
1. General	452
2. Organization	452

	PAGE
a. Health, Maternity, Funeral Insurance	452
b. Old Age, Disability, Survivors' Pensions	452
c. Industrial Accidents and Occupational Diseases	453
d. Family Allowances	453
e. Unemployment Compensation	453
3. Unemployment Compensation	453
4. Health, Maternity, Funeral Insurance	453
5. Family Allowances	454
6. Old Age, Disability, Survivors' Pensions	454
7. Industrial Accidents and Diseases	455
F. Netherlands	455
1. General: Organization	455
a. Health and Maternity Insurance: Medical Benefits	455
b. Health and Maternity Insurance: Cash Benefits, Family Allowances, Unemployment Insurance	455
c. Disability, Old Age, Survivors' Pensions, Industrial Accidents and Occupational Diseases	456
d. Coordinating and Supervising Organ: Council of Social Insurance	456
2. Unemployment Insurance	456
3. Health and Maternity Insurance	456
4. Family Allowances	457
5. Old Age, Disability, Survivors' Pensions	457
6. Industrial Accidents and Diseases	458

CHAPTER VII. NEW LEGAL REMEDIES OF ENTERPRISES: A SURVEY	459
I. Administrative Acts of the Community	460
A. Form of Administrative Acts	460
B. Enforcement of Administrative Acts Against Enterprises	461
1. Imposition of Penalties	461
2. Collection of Monetary Obligations	464

II.	Legal Redress of Enterprises Against Administrative Acts	465
A.	Suit for Annulment in the Community Court of Justice	465
1.	The Enterprise as Party Before the Community Court	465
2.	Administrative Acts Subject to Appeal	466
3.	Grounds of Appeal Against Administrative Acts	466
4.	Scope of the Right of Appeal of Enterprises	470
a.	Direct Appeal Against Binding Acts	470
b.	Collateral Attack Against Regulations	472
c.	Appeal Against Decisions "Disguised" as Recommendations or Opinions	473
d.	"Unclassified" Acts	475
5.	The Suit for Inaction	475
6.	Relief in a Suit for Inaction and Appeal for Annulment	477
7.	The Scope of Review by the Court	478
B.	Redress in National Courts	479
1.	Jurisdictional Limitation on National Courts	479
2.	Suit for Unconstitutionality of Community Acts or of National Acts Issued Pursuant to the Treaty	481
III.	Redress Under National Law for Violation of the Treaty or of a Community Act by Governments or Other Enterprises	484
A.	Redress for Violation by National Governments	484
B.	Redress for Violation by an Individual or Enterprise	489
IV.	Legal Remedies in Contract and Tort Cases to Which the Community Is a Party	490
A.	Suits in the Community Court	490
B.	Suits in Courts of Member States	492
C.	Suits in Courts of Non-Member States	493
1.	Suits Against the Community in American Courts	493

	PAGE
2. Enforcement of Judgments Against the Community	498
3. Enforcements of Judgments Obtained by the Community	499
V. The Community Court: Procedure and Sources of Law	499
A. Procedure and Finality	499
1. Time Limitations	499
2. Procedure	500
3. The Judgments of the Court	502
B. The Court's Sources of Law	503
1. The Treaty	503
2. International Law	505
3. National Laws of Member States and Gen- eral Principles Common to Them	506
4. Acts and Practices of the Institutions	508
Conclusions	509