

PART II.

THE MARITIME LAW.

Chapter IV.

The Maritime Lien.

Section 1. The Nature of the Maritime Lien.

Benedict, American Admiralty

The Bold Buccleugh

The Gazelle

The Cerro Gordo

The Amelie

United States v. Brig Malek Adhel

Schooner Freeman v. Buckingham

The China

The Siren

The Western Maid

The Rock Island Bridge

Section 2. The Creation of the Maritime Lien.

The Florence

Currie v. M'Knight

Obrecht v. United States Shipping Board

In re Insurance Vo.

Dupont de Nemours & Co. v. Vance

Vandewater v. Mills

Bulkley v. Naumkeag Steam Cotton Co.

The Priscilla

Osaka Shosen Kaisha v. Lumber Co.

4,885 Bags of Linseed

The Hyperion's Cargo

The Schooner Highlander

The William M. Hoag

Hart v. Proceeds of The Oakland

The Acorn

The Putnick

The General Smith

The St. Jago de Cuba

Peyroux v. Howard

Lien Act of 1910

The Yankee

Piedmont Coal Co. v. Seaboard Fisheries Co.

The Penn

The Muskegon

The South Coast

United States v. Carver

The J. C. Williams

The Alcalde

The Cimbria

The Gloucester

Section 3. Priorities Among Maritime Liens.

The Gustaf
The Jerusalem
The Dora
The J. W. Tucker
The Samuel Little
The Frank G. Fowler
The F. H. Stanwood
The John G. Stevens
The Glen Island
Ship Mortgage Act, 1920
The Priscilla
The Edward Oliver
In re Bank of Nova Scotia

Section 4. The Extinguishment of the Maritime Lien.

The Trenton
The Louis Olsen
Hawgood & Avery Transit Co. v. Dingman
The Key City
The Tiger
The Nebraska
The Eastern