

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

CHAPTER I.

DEFINITIONS.

	Page
Definition of a state, nation, people, sovereignty, and sovereign state	3
What sovereignty consists in	3, 4
Apportionment of sovereignty in America	4
Definition of constitution and constitutional government	4, 5
Of unconstitutional law	5
The will of the people the final law	6

CHAPTER II.

THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES.

What the United States government the successor of; Colonial confederacies	7
The States never in a strict sense sovereign	8
The Continental Congress	8, 9
Limitations upon its power; the Articles of Confederation, and the supersession thereof by the Constitution	9
Adoption of the Constitution by North Carolina, Rhode Island, and the New States	9, 10
United States government one of enumerated powers	11
General purpose of this government	11
Powers conferred upon Congress	11-13
Powers under the new amendments	13-18
Executive and judicial power of the nation	19-23
Constitution, laws, and treaties of United States to be supreme; final decision of questions under, to rest with national judiciary	24
Removal of causes from State courts; decisions of State courts to be followed on points of State law	24-35
Restrictions upon State action	35-36

	Page
Protection to privileges and immunities of citizens	15-36
Extradition of fugitives from justice	37, 38
Faith and credit secured to records, &c.	38-41
Guaranty of republican government	42-45
Implied prohibitions on the States	45, 46
Reservation of powers to States and people	46
Construction of national bills of rights	46, 47
Statutes necessary to jurisdiction of national courts	47, 48

CHAPTER III.

THE FORMATION AND AMENDMENT OF STATE CONSTITUTIONS.

State governments in existence when Constitution of United States adopted	49
Common law in force; what it consists in	49-53
English and Colonial legislation	53, 54
Colonial charters and revolutionary constitutions	55
Constitutions of new States	55, 56
Sovereignty of the people	56-59
Who are the people, in a political sense	57
Proceedings in the formation and amendment of constitutions	58-69
Restraints imposed thereon by Constitution of the United States	62
What generally to be looked for in State constitutions	64-68
Rights are protected by, but do not come from them	69

CHAPTER IV.

CONSTRUCTION OF STATE CONSTITUTIONS.

Interpretation and construction	70
Who first to construe constitutions	71-77
Final decision generally with the courts	76-78
The doctrine of res adjudicata and stare decisis	79-88
Construction to be uniform	88, 89
The intent to govern	89-91
The whole instrument to be examined	91, 92
Effect to be given to the whole	91, 92
Words to be understood in their ordinary meaning	92, 93
Common law to be kept in view	94, 95
Words sometimes employed in different senses	95-97
Operation of laws to be prospective	97
Implied powers	98, 99
Consideration of the mischief to be remedied	100

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

xi

	Page
Proceedings of Constitutional Convention may be examined	101, 102
Force of contemporaneous and practical construction	102-107
Unjust provisions not invalid	108, 109
Duty in case of doubt on constitutional questions	109
Directory and mandatory provisions	109-119
Constitutional provisions are imperative	114-119
Self-executing provisions	119-122
Danger of arbitrary rules of construction	123

CHAPTER V.

THE POWERS WHICH THE LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT MAY EXERCISE.

Power of American legislatures compared to that of British Parliament	124-129
Grant of legislative power is grant of the complete power	128
But not of executive or judicial power	129-133
Definition of legislative and judicial authority	131-134
Declaratory statutes	134-140
Statute setting aside judgments, granting new trials, &c.	136-140
Recitals in statutes do not bind individuals	139
Statutes conferring power on guardians, &c., to sell lands	140-147
Statutes which assume to dispose of disputed rights	147-151
Statutes validating irregular judicial proceedings	150, 151
Legislative divorces	152-157
Legislative encroachments upon executive power	157-162
Legislative power not to be delegated	163-169
Conditional legislation	169-173
Local option laws	173, 174
Irrepealable laws not to be passed	174-176
Territorial limitations upon State legislative authority	176-181
Inter-state comity	178-181
Other limitations by express provisions	181-184
Limitations springing from nature of free government	182-185

CHAPTER VI.

THE ENACTMENT OF LAWS.

Importance of forms in parliamentary law	186, 187
The two houses of the legislature	187, 188
Differences in powers of	188
Meetings and adjournments	188

	Page
Contested elections, rules of proceeding, punishing disorderly behavior	189, 190
Contempts	191
Privileges of members	192
Legislative committees	193
Journal of proceedings	193-195
Corrupt contracts to influence legislation	196
Counsel before legislature; lobby agents	196
The introduction and passage of bills	197-199
Evasions of constitutional provisions	199 n.
Three readings of bills	199, 200
Yeas and nays	201
Vote required for the passage of a bill	201
Title of statutes	202-214
Amendatory statutes	214-217
Signing of bills by presiding officers	218
Approval of bills by the governor	218-221
Other legislative powers of the governor	222
When acts to take effect	222-226

CHAPTER VII.

THE CIRCUMSTANCES UNDER WHICH A LEGISLATIVE ACT MAY BE DECLARED UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

Authority to declare statutes unconstitutional a delicate one	227-229
Early cases of such declaration	229 n.
Will not be done by bare quorum of court	230
Nor unless a decision upon the point is necessary	231
Nor on objection by a party not interested	232
Nor solely because of unjust or oppressive provisions	232-237
Nor because conflicting with fundamental principles	237-239
Nor because opposed to the spirit of the constitution	239-241
Extent of legislative power	242
Difference between State and national governments	242
A statute in excess of legislative power void	243-246
Statutes invalid as encroaching on executive or judicial authority	244
Or conflicting with the bill of rights	245
Legislative forms are limitations of power	245, 246
Statutes unconstitutional in part	246-250
Constitutional objection may be waived	250-252
Judicial doubts on constitutional questions	252-257
Inquiry into legislative motives not permitted	257-259
Consequences if a statute is void	259, 260

CHAPTER VIII.

THE SEVERAL GRADES OF MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT.

	Page
The American system one of decentralization	261-264
State constitutions framed in reference to it	264
Local government may be delegated to citizens of the mu- nicipality	264, 265
Legislative control of municipalities	265-269
Powers of public corporations	270
Strict construction of charters	271, 272
Contracts ultra vires void	272-274
Must act through corporate authorities	274-276
Corporations by prescription and implication	276-278
Municipal by-laws	278-292
Delegation of powers by municipality not admissible	293, 294
Irrepealable municipal legislation cannot be adopted	295-299
Presumption of correct action	300-306
Power to indemnify officers	306-309
Powers to be construed with reference to purposes of their creation	309-311
Authority confined to corporate limits	312, 313
Municipal subscriptions to works of internal improvement	312-325
Negotiable paper of corporations	320-325
Municipal military bounties	326-333
Legislative control of municipal taxation	334-342
Legislative control of corporate property	342-347
Towns and counties	347-355
Not liable for neglect of official duty	354, 355
Different rules govern chartered corporations	355, 356
In what respect the charter a contract	356-362
Validity of corporate organizations not to be questioned col- laterally	363, 364
The State sometimes estopped from questioning	364 n.

CHAPTER IX.

PROTECTION TO PERSON AND PROPERTY UNDER THE CONSTITUTION
OF THE UNITED STATES.

Bill of Rights, importance of	365-367
Addition of, by amendments to national Constitution	367, 368
Bills of attainder	368-372
Ex post facto laws	372-383

	Page
Laws impairing the obligation of contracts	383-416
What charters are contracts	391-394
Contracting away powers of sovereignty	395-401
Grant of exclusive privileges	401, 402
Changes in the general laws	402, 403
Obligation of a contract, what it is	403-406
Modification of remedies always admissible	406-416
Appraisal laws	412
Stay laws, when void	414
Laws taking away substantial rights	415
Validating imperfect contracts	415, 416
State insolvent laws	416, 417
The thirteenth and fourteenth amendments	417, 418

CHAPTER X.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL PROTECTIONS TO PERSONAL LIBERTY.

Villeinage in England	419-422
In Scotland	422, 423
In America	423
Impressment of seamen	424
Unreasonable searches and seizures	424-429
Every man's house his castle	425-429
Search warrants	429-434
Inviolability of papers and correspondence	432-434
Quartering soldiers in private houses	435
Criminal accusations, how made	436, 437
Bail to persons accused of crime	437-439
Prisoner standing mute	439
Trial to be speedy	440
To be public	441
Not to be inquisitorial	442
Prisoner's statement and confessions	443-449
Confronting prisoner with witnesses	450-452
Prisoner to be present at trial	452
Trial to be by jury	453-465
Number of jurors	454-459
Right of challenge	459
Jury to be of the vicinage	459, 460
Verdict to be unanimous and free	460
Instructions of the judge, how limited	460-462
Power of jury to judge of law	461-465
Accused not to be twice put in jeopardy	466-470

	Page
Excessive fines and cruel and unusual punishments	471-474
Right to counsel	474-482
Protection of professional confidence	477, 478
Duty of counsel	478-482
Whether counsel to address the jury on the law	480, 481
Punishment of misconduct in attorneys	481, 482
Writ of habeas corpus	483-497
Legal restraints upon personal liberty	484-491
Necessity of Habeas Corpus Act	489, 490
What courts issue the writ	491-494
General purpose of writ, and practice upon	495-497
Right of discussion and petition	497, 498
Right to bear arms	498, 499
Jealousy of standing armies	498, 499

CHAPTER XI.

OF THE PROTECTION OF PROPERTY BY THE "LAW OF THE LAND."

Magna Charta, chap. 29	500
Constitutional provisions insuring protection "by the law of the land"	500 n.
Meaning of "due process of law" and "law of the land"	502-508
Vested rights not to be disturbed	508
What are vested rights	509-520
Interests in expectancy are not	511, 512
Legislative modification of estates	512, 513
Control of rights springing from marriage	513-515
Legislative control of remedies	515-518
Vested rights of action are protected	517
Confiscation of rights and property	518-520
Statutes of limitation	520-524
Alteration in the rules of evidence	524-528
Retrospective laws	528-546
Curing irregularities in legal proceedings	530-533
Validating imperfect contracts	535-546
Pendency of suit does not prevent healing act	543
What the healing statute must be confined to	544-546
Statutory privilege not a vested right	546-548
Consequential injuries from changes in the laws	548, 549
Sumptuary and other like laws	549, 550
Betterment laws	550-553
Unequal and partial legislation	554-575
Local laws may vary in different localities	554-557

	Page
Suspension of general laws	558-562
Equality the aim of the law	562-564
Strict construction of special grants	564-567
Privileges and immunities of citizens	567-575
Judicial proceedings void if jurisdiction wanting	575
What constitutes jurisdiction	575
Consent cannot confer it	575, 576
Jurisdiction in divorce cases	577-582
Necessity for process	579-585
Process by publication	582-585
Courts of general and special jurisdiction	585, 586
Effect of irregularities in judicial proceedings	587, 588
Judicial power not to be delegated	589
Must be exercised under accustomed rules	589-592
Judge not to sit in his own cause	592-595

CHAPTER XII.

LIBERTY OF SPEECH AND OF THE PRESS.

Protection of, by the Constitution of the United States	596
State constitutional provisions	596 n.
Not well protected nor defined at common law	599
Censorship of the press; publication of proceedings in Parlia- ment not formerly suffered	599, 600
Censorship of the press in America	600, 601
Secret sessions of public bodies in the United States	601, 602
What liberty of the press consists in	602-605
Common-law rules of liability for injurious publications	605-609
Cases of privileged communications	609-612, 646 n.
Libels on the government, whether punishable	612-615
Sedition law	613
Further cases of privilege; criticism of officers or candidates for office	616-628
Petitions and other publications in matters of public concern	617, 618
Statements in course of judicial proceedings	629-631
by witnesses	629
by jurors	629, 630
by complainant, &c.	630, 631
by counsel	631-633
Privileges of legislators	634-636
Publication of privileged communications through the press	636-640
Accounts of judicial proceedings, how far protected	636-640
Privilege of publishers of news	640-650

	Page
Publication of legislative proceedings	650-652
The jury as judges of the law in libel cases	652-655
Mr. Fox's Libel Act	653-655
"Good motives and justifiable ends," burden of showing is on defendant	656-658
What is not sufficient to show	657 n.

CHAPTER XIII.

RELIGIOUS LIBERTY.

Care taken by State constitutions to protect	659
Distinguished from religious toleration	660-662
What it precludes	663-668
Does not preclude recognition of superintending Providence by public authorities	668-669
Nor appointment of chaplains, fast-days, &c.	669
Nor recognition of fact that the prevailing religion is Christian	669
The maxim that Christianity is part of the law of the land	670
Punishment of blasphemy	671-673
And of other profanity	674
Sunday laws, how justified	674-676
Respect for religious scruples	676
Religious belief as affecting the competency or credibility of witnesses	676, 677

CHAPTER XIV.

THE POWER OF TAXATION.

Unlimited nature of the power	678-680
Exemption of national agencies from State taxation	682-686
Exemption of State agencies from national taxation	685, 686
Limitations on State taxation by national Constitution	686, 687
Power of States to tax subjects of commerce	687-691
Discriminations in taxation between citizens of different States	693
Elements essential to valid taxation	695-751
Purposes must be public	696-705
Legislature to judge of purposes	698-705
Unlawful exactions	702-705
Necessity of apportionment	705-713
Taxation with reference to benefits in local improvements	713-737
Local assessments distinguished from general taxation	715-717
Apportionment of the burden in local assessments	718-737

	Page
Taxation must be uniform throughout the taxing districts	722-737
Road taxes in labor	737
Inequalities in taxation inevitable	737, 738
Legislature must select subjects of taxation	739
Exemptions admissible	739-744
Constitutional provisions forbidding exemptions	743, 744
Legislative authority requisite for every tax	744-748
Excessive taxation	747, 748
The maxim de minimis lex non curat in tax proceedings	748
What errors and defects render tax sales void	748-750
Remedies for collection of taxes	748-751

CHAPTER XV.

THE EMINENT DOMAIN.

Ordinary domain of State distinguished from eminent domain	752, 753
Definition of eminent domain	753, 754
Not to be bargained away; general rights vested in the States	755
How far possessed by the general government	755, 756
What property subject to the right	756-759
Legislative authority requisite to its exercise	759, 760
Strict compliance with conditions precedent necessary	760-763
Statutes for exercise of, not to be extended by intendment	762, 763
Purpose must be public	763-766
What is a public purpose	766-775
Whether milldams are	771-773
Question of, is one of law	774, 775
How property to be taken	775, 776
Determining the necessity for	777, 778
How much may be taken	779-781
What constitutes a taking	781-810
Consequential injuries do not	781-788
Appropriation of highway to plank road or railroad	788-808
Whether the fee in the land can be taken	803-810
The damaging of property	810-812
Compensation to be made	812, 826-828
Time of making	813-817
Tribunal for assessing	817, 818
Principle on which it is to be assessed	819-828
Allowance of incidental injuries and benefits	823-828
What the assessment covers	825, 826
Action where work improperly constructed	826

CHAPTER XVI.

THE POLICE POWER OF THE STATES.

	Page
Definition of police power	829
Pervading nature of	829-831
Power where vested	831, 832
Exercise of, in respect to charter contracts	833-844
License or prohibition of sales of intoxicating drinks	845-851
Payment of license fee to United States gives no right in opposition to State law	851
Quarantine regulations and health laws	851-855
Inspection laws ; harbor regulations	855
Distinction between proper police regulation and an interference with commerce	856
State taxes upon commerce	857-859
Sunday police regulations	859
Regulation of highways by the States	860, 861
Control of navigable waters	861-868
What are navigable	861, 862
Congressional regulations of	863
Monopolies of, not to be granted by States	864
Power in the States to improve and bridge	865, 866
And to establish ferries and permit dams	867
Regulation of speed of vessels	867
Levees and drains	868
Regulation of civil rights and privileges	869
Regulation of business charges	870-877
Destruction of buildings to prevent spread of fire	878
Establishment of fire limits and wharf lines ; abatement of nuisances, &c.	878-883
Other State regulations of police	884-891
Power of States to make breach thereof a crime	890

CHAPTER XVII.

THE EXPRESSION OF THE POPULAR WILL.

People possessed of the sovereignty, but can only exercise it under legal forms	892
Elections the mode	893-898
Qualifications for office	894 n. -896 n.
Officers de facto and de jure	896-899

	Page
Who to participate in elections ; conditions of residence, presence at the polls, &c.	899-903
Residence, domicile, and habitation defined	903-907
Registration of voters	905-907
Other regulations	907, 908
Preliminary action by authorities, notice, proclamation, &c.	908, 909
Mode of voting ; the ballot	910
Importance of secrecy ; secrecy a personal privilege	911-913
Ballot must be complete in itself	914
Parol explanations by voter inadmissible	914
Ballot must not contain too many names	915
Names on ballot should be full	916
Abbreviations, initials, &c.	916, 917
Erroneous additions do not affect	917
Evidence of surrounding circumstances to explain ballot	919, 920
Boxes for different votes ; errors in depositing	921
Plurality to elect	892 n. , 921, 922
Freedom of elections ; bribery	922
Treating electors ; service of process	923
Betting on elections, contracts to influence them, &c.	924
Militia not to be called out on election days	924, 925
Electors not to be deprived of votes	926, 927
Liability of officers for refusing votes	927, 928
Elector's oath when conclusive	927, 928
Conduct of election	928
Effect of irregularities	928-930
Effect if candidate is ineligible	931
Admission of illegal votes	932, 933
Fraud, intimidation, &c.	932-934
Canvass and return of votes ; canvassers act ministerially	934-937
Contesting elections ; final decision upon, rests with the courts	937-944
Canvasser's certificate conclusive in collateral proceedings ; courts may go behind	939-944
What proofs admissible	940-944
Whether qualification of voter may be inquired into by courts	942-944