LEGAL DIRECTORY OF THE
LAW CLASS OF '91
UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN
H. D. JEWELL, Compiler
FIRST EDITION
1891
ANNOUNCEMENT.

DEAR CLASSMATES:

Pursuant to action taken by the Law Class of '91, at their last meeting, Thursday, June 18, 1891, this Directory has been compiled. An effort has been made to make it as complete as possible, and it is hoped that the wishes of the Class have been carried out. Considerable delay has been caused by the neglect of many members to send in their names promptly. A few have not responded, and where the information as to their location is not strictly reliable, it is so indicated by a (*) before the name.

The Directory will be published annually, in September of each year. Names and fees (10 cents) for the “Second Edition” must be sent the compiler on or before Sept. 15, 1892. The address of the compiler will be Grand Rapids, Mich., unless you are otherwise notified. In case of the inability of the compiler to act at any time, for any reason, it will be compiled by B. F. Chase or R. B Hamilton, Assistant Compilers.

A limited number of extra copies of this edition may be had for 15 cents each. Don’t forget to send names in promptly for the next Directory.

Fraternally yours,

Ann Arbor, Sept. 25, 1891.

H. D. J.

N. B. When answering advertisements herein please mention this Directory.
'91 REUNION.

The first reunion of the Law Class of '91 will be held in Chicago in 1893. All members who can attend are requested to meet at the Grand Pacific Hotel, Monday, July 3rd, 1893, at 2 p. m., at which time the committee will announce such arrangements as shall have been made for banquet and other entertainment. Don't forget the date.

CHICAGO REGISTER.

A blank book, made especially for the purpose, has been left at the Sherman House, northwest corner Clark and Randolph streets, opposite Court House, Chicago, where every member of the Class of '91 is requested to call, whenever in Chicago, and register name, address while in the city, how long to remain, etc., etc.
AMERICAN CORPORATION CASES
1868-1889.

Embracing the decisions of the highest Courts of questions peculiar to the Law of Corporations.
Edited by Withrow, Binmore and Irish, complete in 11 vols. (with the Digest) .................. $55.00

The leading purpose in the preparation of these volumes is to enable every Lawyer to acquire and have at hand, in moderate space, the authoritative law upon the subject, collected from the great mass of reports—so as to reduce the labor of investigation in the consideration of cases.

The ten volumes cover every material question as to the organization of companies, whether by special charter, or under general law; the rights of stockholders, and the duties of their representative officers;
the powers of companies of every nature, the conduct of their business, the distribution of assets, etc.,
etc., carrying the organization from inception to dissolution.

The whole series is digested in volume II.

ROOT'S CORPORATION LAWS
With complete forms for the organization of joint stock companies, as well as for the re-organization of the same and other corporations. $3.00.

WEBSTER'S INTERNATIONAL DICTIONARY

A GRAND INVESTMENT
For the Family, the School or the Library.

The Authentic Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, comprising the issues of 1864, '79 and '84 (still copyrighted) has been thoroughly revised and enlarged, and as a distinguishing title, bears the name of Webster's International Dictionary.

The work of revision occupied over ten years, more than a hundred editorial laborers having been employed, and over $300,000 expended before the first copy was printed.

SOLD BY ALL BOOKSELLERS.

A Pamphlet of specimen pages, illustrations, testimonials, etc., sent free by the publishers.

Caution is needed in purchasing a dictionary, as photographic reprints of an obsolete and comparatively worthless edition of Webster are being marketed under various names and often by misrepresentation.
