OF THE Law Class of '91,
UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN.

HARRY D. JEWELL,
COMPILER.

SECOND EDITION
1892
ANNOUNCEMENT.

DEAR CLASSMATES:

The compiling of the Second Edition of this Directory has been a pleasant duty. It has been a pleasure to read your letters and a personal gratification to note the success with which every member of the class is meeting. Those same sturdy qualities and high motives which characterized the Law Class of '91 at its inception seem to be amplified in its individual members, and follow them in their contests with the realities of life. This Directory will, no doubt, be more and more valuable to us as the years go by. Let us not neglect it. Many have failed to send their addresses this year. These are marked with a (§) before the name, and their whereabouts has been obtained from the best sources at hand. A few changes have been made which, it is hoped, will increase the practical usefulness of the Directory.

          Fraternally Yours,

GRAND RAPIDS, Sept. 1892.  H. D. J.

'91 RE-UNION.

As heretofore announced the first Class Reunion will be held in Chicago in 1893. Every member is urged to meet at the GRAND PACIFIC HOTEL, Monday, July 3, 1893, at 2 P. M., unless otherwise notified. The committee will endeavor to complete arrangements several weeks before that time, and a letter giving more definite details will be sent you.
The Law Class of 1891.

IN MEMORIAM.

WM. BUTTERFIELD RAMSAY, A. B., L. L. B.

Born May 11, 1868; Died Oct. 7, 1891.

Wm. B. Ramsay, son of Rev. W. W. Ramsay, D. D., and Lida A. Ramsay, now of Boston, Mass., was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, May 11th, 1868, and died at Washington C. H., Ohio, October 7th, 1891, of pulmonary consumption. He was graduated from the School of Liberal Arts of the U. of M. in 1890, and from the Law School of the same University with the class of 1891. But it was with deeply impaired health, and constantly increasing debility, which admitted of neither arrest nor suspension.

His early death was greatly mourned by a wide circle of friends, though he met the ordeal with the true heroism of Christian faith.

He was an interesting child, a manly youth and noble young man. He was worthy of the eminent place he held in the popular esteem wherever he was known, and the position so generously accorded him in the recollections of numerous college friends. A high place had been accorded him in the hopes of his parents, as well as in the expectations of those who were acquainted with his clear mind, generous heart, and ample literary and professional furnishing. We are dumb before the silence of sorrowful bereavement, awaiting hopefully the revelation of that future for which life's present preparation must be truly helpful.

SKILL IN TRIALS.
Being some of the Art, Skill, Fine Work and Advice of Advocates like Beach, Choate, Curtis, Davis, Depew, Fountain, Ingersoll, Webster, May, and others, and how they win both fees and cases.

BY J W. DONOVAN.

Author of "Modern Jury Trials," "Trial Practice," "Tact in Court," etc.

Many cases that bring large fees and new business look as dark as tunnels, and show no line of defense, but "Skill in Trials" will help defend them.
The Study of Trials is the art of trial work. This book is made of dramatic cases full of excellent work and trial incidents.

A Dollar Bill may save a week's study; a hint may win a suit, and the fame that follows, besides the greatest of all fees, VICTORY.
The matter has been gathered by travel, at great expense, from experienced advocates who often give up such facts reluctantly. It is only by personal visits that trial secrets are obtained.

Book 5x8, 160 pages, law sheep, shaped like "Tact in Court." Mail a $1.00 bill, New York draft or postal note, and we will send it in law sheep, prepaid.

"Tact in Court," being a companion book to the above, $1.00, postage paid. Send stamp for our catalogue of Second-hand Law Books.
