In the TWENTY YEARS

since the class of 1906 graduated the outstanding feature of the Progress of the Law has been the adoption by the States of

UNIFORM LAWS.

Wherever the members of this class have located, there will be found these laws.

UNIFORM LAWS, ANNOTATED

is the one publication which gives these laws, with their annotations, and keeps them always up to date with

ANNUAL SUPPLEMENTS

This set is in eleven books, and with the 1925 Supplements included in same the price delivered is only $50.

DIRECTORY OF 1906 LAW CLASS

JULY, 1926

Compiled by GORDON STONER
Detroit, Michigan
NOTE

This is the third directory which the compiler has prepared for the 1906 Law Class. The work on this edition, as that of preceding editions, has not been unattended with difficulties and disappointments. The loyal support and real appreciation given and expressed by about half of the members of the class has been an inspiration to the compiler. It would have increased greatly the burden of the work had the compiler acknowledged to each loyal supporter the receipt of his contribution. In order to apprise each contributor of the receipt of his check or cash, the compiler has placed an asterisk (*) before the names of those who contributed $1.25 each, the sum requested from each member of the class and a dagger sign (†) before the names of the class, two of whom sent $2.00 each, one of whom sent $3.00, one of whom sent $5.00, and one $10.00, to aid the work. A total of over $145.00 has been received as the directory goes to press, and, doubtless, other members of the class will still send in their contributions.
All funds received have been deposited to the account of the Class in the Farmers and Mechanics Bank, at Ann Arbor; disbursements have been made by check and report of receipts and expenditures will be submitted to the Class at the Class luncheon on June 11th, at which time an audit of accounts will be asked.

It is well for the members of the Class to remember that their contributions on the occasion of each issue of the Directory have kept the Class in funds so that the Secretary has always been able to send out notices and letters without advancing the funds for stationery and stamps from his own pocket. In this, it is thought, our Class has been unusual. This has been made possible through the prompt attention to the Secretary's letters by a large group of loyal 1906 classmates and by their generous and willing contributions.

Your attention is directed to the advertisement herein. The compiler offered—not urged—to several law book publishers, the use of this booklet as an advertising medium. The publisher whose advertisement appears herein bought space. The money received from this source bears a portion of the expense of this publication. The publisher's expenditure has been made on the faith that he will derive value from his advertisement. This faith will be justified if each member of the Class will bear this publisher in mind when ordering law books. Please do this.

Quite likely this will be the last edition of the Class directory, as the members of the Class after twenty years should be too well settled to justify the work and expense of a future edition because of changes in location. It has been a disappointment to the compiler not to have heard directly from each member of the Class. A goodly portion of the members of the Class have furnished their own addresses. In some instances, the only confirmation of an address printed was furnished by the non-return of a letter sent to such address. Where an address was verified in this unreliable manner, the name is preceded by an interrogation point (?) in the succeeding pages. Where no addresses have been found for members of the Class, the names of such members are followed by the words “no address”.

Trusting this booklet may serve to rekindle in some and keep alive in others a strong class interest and loyalty, the compiler submits it to the Class for their approval.
