INTRODUCTION

My Dear Classmates:

This is the fifth time I have had the pleasure of compiling a directory of the '93 Law Class.

As we grow older we find less time to devote to a work of this kind. Our daily duties are of such character that they require all our time and attention. This is the only excuse I have in not issuing the Directory sooner.

I sincerely believe that the success achieved by the members of this Class has no parallel in the history of the University of Michigan. Several have become millionaires; a large number have become judges of almost National reputation, and even the halls of Congress have been opened to the Boomerlackers. And in looking at where the members live, an interesting fact is that the sun never sets on a Boomerlacker.

The officers of the Class at the present time are William E. McReynolds, 71 Nassau Street, New York, President; and Frank G. Jones, Muskegon, Michigan, Secretary. Both these gentlemen, on account of their interest in Class matters, are peculiarly fitted and qualified for their respective offices.

The Class has been unusually fortunate in the comparatively small number of deaths. I believe that arrangements should be made whereby more data can be secured in the event of the death of any member of the Class, and the President and Secretary should be notified by each member of the Class, giving at least the names of two persons, who are always conversant with their whereabouts and where the Class could always secure complete data in regard to death.

Personally I would be pleased to hear from each one of you at any time, and again wish for each and all continued success and prosperity.

LAW CLASS OF 1893

University of Michigan

William T. Aggeler, Attorney at Law, Santa Clara County, San Jose, Cal. Reported that he is doing well.

Eva Jane Akers (now Mrs. Meade), Williamston, Mich.

G. H. Albers, Cashier Planters & Merchants State Bank, Hearne, Texas, Robertson County. One child. Enjoying three square meals a day.

Elton C. Armitage, No. 1414-134 Monroe St., Chicago, Cook County, Ill. One child. Republican. Has a good practice and very successful.

Albert M. Ashley, deceased.

'Dear Albers: I find that I have overlooked returning blank for new directory, but enclose same herewith and my check $2.00.

'I fear that I have little information, if any, for you. I notice that you have asked for the county in which residences are located. I have used the Directory in doing our forwarding business and always turn to the State classified column in the back of the book. Frequently none of the boys are located in the town I am looking for, and I have resorted to a State map to learn the county they were in, and sometimes used them when nearby or written the nearest fellow for a recommendation.

'I think the county added to classified State directory would be a great convenience, if it will not add much to your expense or labor. This is only a suggestion; use it for what it is worth. If I can aid you in any manner, I will be pleased to so.

'In the last Directory you have entered 'with James H. Donald.' We have been in partnership ever since 1898, but have never used a firm name other than both individual names.

'Trusting that prosperity attend you in your Southern location.'
A. H. Babcock, North Loup, Neb.

Joe E. Baird, Bowling Green, Ohio. I am very sorry indeed that we have not heard from Joe, he was one of the popular members of the class, and a letter from him would have interested us all.

L. L. Baker, Tooele, Tooele County, Utah. County Attorney. Now Representative in Legislature. Three children; Republican. Keeps in touch with Classmates Sam King, J. M. Lockhart, and Judge C. B. Stewart. Classmate Baker writes as follows:

"I am sorry to say that I have no 'interesting experiences' to report; my experiences are mostly those encountered by the average country lawyer. I herewith enclose check for $2.00 for the new directory, and anticipate much pleasure in reading the varied experiences of my more fortunate classmates. With kindest regards, I am, very respectfully yours."

Frank E. Baldwin, Main St., Austin, Potter County, Pa. Mr. Baldwin is Postmaster and County Chairman, and State Senator. Republican. Keeps in touch with W. E. Mullen, M. O. Morrow, William E. McReynolds and W. L. Davis. In writing to the Secretary just prior to the class reunion, Classmate Baldwin writes:

"I have been wondering how large a meeting of the boys was expected on June 17th. Would it be too much trouble for you to furnish me with a partial list of those that are expected to be present?"

"As I take it, the reunion is supposed to be merely for the day of June 17th. I am very anxious to attend."

Fred R. Barney, Charlotte, Mich., is in the dry goods business and doing well.

S. W. Barker, 1318 4th Ave., W. Seattle, Washington. Mr. Barker moved to Washington City in March, 1907, and is now interested in the lumber business and is doing exceptionally well.

M. E. Barnhart, 503 Atwood Bldg., Chicago, Cook County, Ill. Democrat. Keeps in touch with all the boys in Chicago, and many others. Enjoying a very fine practice, and stands very high among the attorneys.

A. C. Barras, Escanaba, Mich. Classmate Barras' permanent residence is as above indicated; he is at present in Goldyke, Nye County, Nevada, where he has considerable financial interests, and is doing well.

William A. Bateman, over First National Bank, Calumet, Houghton County, Mich. Four children. Republican. Keeps in touch with none of the boys in particular, but travels considerably and looks up the boys. In writing, says:

"I have nothing in particular to write. I have made several fortunes and lost them in mining business. Hope my investments will fix me by another year. I am a successful promoter, am successful in court. I have a good practice in one of the best towns in Michigan. We have an up-to-date city in every particular: the greatest copper mining camp in the world."

FRED W. BEAL, Terre Haute, Ind. State Senator from Vigo County. "Was twice elected Prosecuting Attorney of my County." Has a very good criminal practice, a nice wife and a fine home.

E. J. Bean, Hillsboro, Mo., has a fine practice and has done well financially.

WILL M. BEGGS, San Jose, Cal., is a good attorney and stands well in his home town.

W. C. BELKNAP, Newspaper Publisher, (W. C. Belknap & Co.) Bellows Falls, Vt. Five children; Republican. In writing to Secretary Jones, Classmate Belknap says:

"I regret exceedingly that it will be impossible for me to attend the Boomerlacker Reunion. I am aware that this is the fifteenth anniversary and everybody ought to be there. I hope you will have a very large gathering and a very enjoyable occasion. If any of the boys with whom I am acquainted inquire, please tell them where I am located, and that the world is using me as well as I probably deserve."

E. P. BENNETT. Address unknown.

MARY E. BENSON. Address unknown.

H. R. BENTE, 210 South Ohio St., Sedalia, Mo. Member of the firm of Bente & Wilson. Has a fine practice and doing well.

U. F. BICKLEY, (Bickley & Bickley) High St., Hamilton, Butler County, Ohio. Still looking for a wife. Democrat. A. C. Hindman, A. G. Turnipseed, McReynolds, Frank Crawford, Titsworth of Indiana, and H. Smith, are the classmates he keeps in touch with. Brother Bickley writes as follows:

"I know you will all appreciate the efforts of G. H. Albers in getting our new Class Directory, for the Directory affords us all great pleasure in the giving of information of the different members of the great Boomerlacker Class of 1903. Its last reunion that was held in June was a great success, and should have been attended by more of the boys than were there.

'I am still practicing law in Hamilton, Ohio; having associated with me my brother, a graduate of the class of 1902 of the U. of M. We follow the general practice of law and have built a good law practice of a lucrative nature and have managed to keep out of politics, with the exception of the one experience of several years ago.

'The most important thing that I would urge upon my fellow classmates is that all of those who possibly can will arrange their affairs and business so as to join us in our coming Reunion in June of 1908, when our fellow classmates and President McReynolds, of Tammany fame, will arrange for the most successful Reunion that the Boomerlackers have ever held.

'So wishing all the old boys the continued success that has followed them since their graduation, and hoping to see many more of them at our coming Reunion, I am as ever.'

And he also wrote to Secretary Jones as follows:

'My Dear Old Friend and Class-mate: I was much pleased on receiving a postal card, stating the time and place of the Boomerlacker Reunion. The girl space is still blank in my life, as I am still a bachelor. But I assure you that I will be present at our Class Reunion on June 17, 1908, at Ann Arbor, Michigan.

'I am glad to learn that the Boomerlackers have again awakened to the old college spirit and Class loyalty that once beat so earnestly and warmly in their manly hearts when they were seniors at Ann Arbor, and when they used to make the old town howl with noise.

'I hope that a great many will arrange their business matters and worldly cares and throw off the responsibilities and cares of life and again return to the old scenes and times that we in the past so much enjoyed; and I assure you that I for one will be there, no matter how important a case in court or lucrative matter of business calls my attention and care elsewhere.

'Awaiting the pleasure of meeting with you and all others of my classmates and trusting that the number will be large who will attend, I remain as ever.'

JOSEPH A. BIERD, West Bay City, Mich. Class-mate Bierd is engaged in mining, and the reports say that he is very wealthy.

"It is with pleasure that I receive some word from the old Class of '93, yet with the presence of business cares, I do not take the interest in keeping in touch with the Class that I ought and with the individual members.

"I see and hear from our Bro. Scratchin of Bemidji, Minn., quite often. He is becoming a quite noted criminal lawyer in this vicinity.

"I am as near the North Pole as I wish to get; but this seems to be a very good place to live after all.

"'Hoping to be present at the next Class Reunion, I am as ever.'"

I. D. Blair, Los Angeles, Cal. Reported that he has a good practice.

Clayton B. Blakey, Louisville Trust Bldg. Jefferson County, Ky. Is a prominent lawyer and Republican politician in Louisville and will soon be mayor of that town.

A. N. Blessing, Columbus, Ind.

E. J. Bodwell, Lyndonville, Vt.

J. A. Bordeaux, U. S. A. Brother Bordeaux's address is not known, and several of the class-mates in Texas have seen him the last few years. He is supposed to be in the life insurance business.

Frank L. Bowen, Editor, 407-160 Washington Street, Chicago, Ill. Is considered a good newspaper man and has been successful.

Nick M. Bradley, Warrensburg, Mo., is now Circuit Judge; formerly he was State Senator. Stands high with the attorneys at the bar, and has been unusually successful.

W. F. Brickman, 42 Adams Bldg., Findley, Ohio. In writing to Secretary Jones, he says:

"'Upon my return from the West I found upon my desk your invitation to attend the Annual Banquet of the 'Boomerlackers.' I have been away from home so much that I fear it will be impossible for me to attend the banquet. Should I be able to arrange to be there, I will notify you a little later.'"

Bernard F. Brough, 2105 Franklin Ave., Toledo, Lucas County, Ohio. Republican. Judge of the Court of Common Pleas. Keeps in touch with James and Freidman. Makes a very fine judge and stands exceedingly well with the members of the bar.

Alfred H. Brous, 222 Century Block, Des Moines, Polk County, Iowa. Republican. Classmate Brous writes as follows:

"Dear Friend: Your letter and list of questions came to hand this A. M. and I have signed the list as best I can, and beg to say that I do not know if I will be able to send the $2.00 in time to do any good or not. I have been sick and am still under the doctor's care. I am up and around and attending to business as best I can, but I am somewhat in debt, and being sick it is best I promise nothing. It hurts me to tell you this, but the truth is the best in the end. I will be up and doing in time. The doctor says I must be careful.

"I have quite a good law practice and hope to hold it, should I hold my health. When once I am restored, I will remember you as Class Historian and remit; but do not count too strongly on it. I have had my good luck before the bar and have the confidence of the judges and my clients, but as to any especially cute thing that I have done, I know of none. I never was very smart or cute and I hardly think I will break out all of a sudden. The bar association has requested me to appear at a certain photographer's in this city and get my picture taken. It may be I can send you one, but I am not anxious to have it appear. Would be pleased to hear from you again, and it may be I can do you some good; if so call on me at any time."

D. A. Brown, Kansas City, Mo. When Classmate Judge Park was elected judge, he appointed Classmate Brown official stenographer.

W. J. Bulow, Bereford, Union County, South Dakota. One girl and one boy; Democrat; member of the South Dakota Senate. In writing, Classmate Bulow says:

"I intended to reply to your favor sooner, but did not do so. Enclosed find check for $2.00 in payment for copy of Class Directory. Spangler, of Mitchell, S. D., was here yesterday and today."

"Was sorry that I could not attend the Class Reunion. Nothing to write that would be of any particular interest to any of the Boomerlackers."

E. M. Bumphrey, 721-164 Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill. In writing Secretary Jones, Classmate Bumphrey says:

"I have often pondered how those members of that large class with whom I was intimately acquainted and with whom I could not or did not keep in touch, have weathered the storms and vicissitudes of life in the practice of the legal profession.

"Rest assured that if press of business, or any other unfortuitous circumstance does not prevent, I shall be on hand at the time stated; but if not, rest assured that I have not forgotten either "The Time, the Place or the Girl."

"I have none to forget. Shall I prefix, 'Sad to say,' or 'Glad to say,' and I will add, 'the Boys.' But let this indenture witness that I still remain, yours truly."

Ross Beale, Mt. Sterling, Madison County, Ohio. Assistant Cashier of Citizens National Bank. One child; Democrat. Keeps in touch with A. M. Cooper and B. F. Brough. In writing, says:

"How dear to my heart were the scenes at Ann Arbor, when lame Jerry Knowlton failed to appear. There was Thompson, and Cooly and Griffith and others, whose names I might mention, still sound dear to me.

"Fifteen years ago, just from College, I thought that I knew it all. I thought that in a short time money would come rolling in from all directions, but alas, here I am bald-headed, stoop-shouldered, wrinkled and ragged, $2.00 worse off than nothing; but a more willing cuss to do or die, never walked the earth.

"I stand ready to give all the information I know about base ball games, prize fights and cock fights. I have taken in as high as $19.44 a day at the receiving teller's window and never appropriated one cent to my own use."

Eugene E. Bressler. Library Commissioner, Consul to Venezuela, 7 and 8 Peninsula Bank Block, Detroit, Mich:

Was member of Michigan Constitutional Convention 1907-8. We understand that Mr. Campbell has been exceedingly successful, and is considered one of the rich and substantial citizens of his town. Writes as follows:

"From the copper lined rocks of the extreme north of Michigan to Classmates, wherever located, I send greetings. I was not able to be at the last Reunion, but hope to meet all at the next.

"May honor, success and long life be the lot of each."

R. Campbell, Jackson, Mich.

J. J. Crosby, Superintendent of Pekin City School, Pekin, Ill. Classmate Crosby writes as follows:

"A few days since, Mr. Dancy of the Acme Harvester Co. handed me a note from you, asking where I could be found. Well, you can find me here from now until January 30th, 1909. If there is anything I can do for a Classmate will certainly do it, if he makes his wants known."

B. B. Crawford, 416 Chamber of Commerce Building, Portland, Oregon.

Frank Crawford, Ware Block, Douglas County, Omaha, Neb. Republican. Married February 1st, 1905, to Miss Louise Mac Nair. Classmate Crawford, we understand, has grown exceedingly wealthy, and is a lawyer of very high standing and enjoys a fine practice. He has seen possibly more of his class-mates since graduation than any one else, with the possible exception of Sands & McReynolds. Class-mate Crawford writes as follows:

"Good goes to Congress from Iowa, Jeffries stands a good chance to represent this District, but will have a hard fight both for nomination and election. Saw many of the boys at Republican National Convention and a few who passed through Omaha to attend Bryan's Convention. Our boys seem to be doing pretty well all over the country. I see their names and reports in the papers frequently, and have quite an interchange of business with them. There were ten of us in Nebraska once, but I think only three are now practicing: McIntosh, Jeffries and myself. Livingston, Conroe and Sykes are dead. Rooney is in New York (and doing well, by the way), Griffin is broken in health and Calkins is in bad health. Reese is in fine condition, but spends much of his time in Cuba, where he has large interests. Tamplin has moved from Iowa into Nebraska and is running a country newspaper. Of Babcock, I know little. We are under great obligations to you, Alber, for our directories. I hope you will have the co-operation of all the boys."

E. S. CUNNINGHAM, American Consul, Durban, Africa. Brother Cunningham has been in the Consular service since 1898; was in Aden, Arabia, from 1898 to 1903; Bergen, Norway, 1903 to 1906; Durban, Africa, since 1906. He stands high in the service and reflects credit on the Class. Writes as follows:

"Your notice that another Class Directory was about to appear is just received, having been forwarded to me from Bergen, Norway, from which I presume that you were not aware of my promotion to this post. I have been here since December, 1906. I have filled in the blank and enclose it herewith. I have not been able to keep up with any of the Class, except Morrell, who is in my home town. I find that when one leaves the best country in the world his old friends find someone else to fill his place. I wish I had done as most of our class did, remain in America in the practice of law.

"I should like to meet with the Class some time and if I knew when the Reunion comes off again I would endeavor to make it a point to be present. I should like to shake hands with all the 'Boomer-lackers,' and learn how they have prospered. You have been more pleasantly situated than I have been, as you have always attended these Reunions. Remember me kindly and convey to each of our Class-mates my sincere wishes for increased prosperity, and should any of them come to this part of the world rest assured that a hearty welcome awaits them."
"What has become of Johnson, Hitchcock, et. al., of the old special friends? I should like to hear from all of them. I hope you have personally bettered your conditions in the change to Dixie land. I am not surprised that you have finally reached the South, as you long since showed your partiality for her daughters. I should like to be kindly remembered to Mrs. Albers, and with kindest regards to you."

T. B. CUNNINGHAM, Kentland, Newton County, Ind. Democrat. Was a candidate for prosecuting attorney and expect he was elected, but have not heard from him since. Has a fine practice and is doing well.

JAMES J. DANHOF, Grand Rapids, Mich., 34 Monroe St. City Attorney of Grand Haven. Has a good practice and is reputed as quite wealthy.

CHARLES E. CHADMAN, Main St., Conneaut, Ohio. Three children: Democrat; is in the practice of law; is an author of considerable merit, and is the author of "Cyclopedia of Law," which is so well and favorably known among members of the class that to mention it more particularly would be superfluous.

D. CROWE, Vivian, La. Is in the practice of law and doing nicely.

H. N. DAUGHERTY. Deceased.

C. E. DEDEICK. Deceased.

W. H. DELLENBACl), 95 South Clark St., Chicago, Ill. Member of the firm of Dellenback & Reise & Cody. Republican, and enjoys a good practice. He writes as follows:

"I wish I might have been at our Class Reunion, for that helps to keep up a class. Just now I am busy trying to be elected State Senator for the 21st District.

"Best wishes to all the class mates."

G. A. DENTLER, No. 309-310 Iroquois Building, Grant County, Marion, Ind. Member of the firm of Dentler & Williams. Stands high in his profession, and has a good practice. To the secretary he writes as follows:

"I received your very timely announcement of the Class Reunion at Ann Arbor next week. How the fellows that will gather there, will at the place and with each other awaken old memories; how they will live in the days of 1891-1893. I would be happy to be there and with them; but I find that it will be impossible for me to have that good fortune. Mark me absent, but be assured that my mind will be with you on that occasion. Remember me to all. Tell them I am well and as prosperous as usual. I have a big heart for each of the fellows, and would be happy to have each place his hand in mine and speak the words of good cheer. Fellows George W. Thompson and Samuel L. Stricker are here in the practice and are prosperous and growing lawyers. My love to you each."

B. De Vries, 611 South Clinton St., South Bend, Ind. Is a commercial traveler. Has three children, and a Democrat.

Charles M. Dial, special agent for the Title Guaranty & Surety Company, Seattle, Washington. In writing to the secretary, says as follows:

"Your card calling my attention to the Reunion June 17th at hand, and it is with many feelings of regret I am forced to send my regrets. These festive occasions always find me either too poor or too busy to attend, and I hope you will be charitable and consider the latter excuse is the one that keeps me away this time.

"Yesterday while attending a session of our Probate Court, I had a chat with other 'Boomerlackers,' H. W. Lung and Frank A. Noble. Both are practicing law, and seem to have accumulated considerable of the world's good. B. B. Crawford is also located here and has a good practice. S. W. Barker is now engaged in the lumbering industry, with headquarters in Seattle, and drops in quite often. J. E. Patrick is in the real estate business, and says he is moving the earth in small tracts. A. W. Deming is located in Little Rock, Thurston County, Wash., in the shingle mill business. Visited me last week, together with his wife and two children. He and I married sisters, and I am the father of one boy now eight years old. He expects to enter Ann Arbor October, 1918.

"Kindly give the regards of myself and all the other boys sojourning in this part of the country to all those who attend the gathering, and we would very much appreciate any report of the proceedings, and gladly remit any cost of sending same to us."

J. L. Duffy, Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Jesse J. Duncan, Silex, Lincoln County, Mo. Democrat; two children; a Representative in the State Legislature; cashier of the Farmers' Exchange Bank. Writes as follows:

"Am much pleased that the 'Boomerlackers' are going to get out a new class directory.

"With best wishes for your success in getting up an interesting directory."

"I was terribly disappointed at missing the Reunion. I started for it, but just as soon as I was about to take the train, they caught me with the news that my partner, Mr. Sprague, had been seized with a sudden illness, and by the time we got him to the hospital and properly taken care of, it was too late.

"There are a number of the boys that I see or hear from occasionally and they are all doing quite well. Groesbeck is one of the leading lawyers here, and Jonathan Palmer and Lewis H. Paddock both stand high personally and professionally.

"Hoping that we may all live and prosper 'till the next Reunion and that I may have better luck and be able to see you all next time.'"

Will send a check for $2.00 with the picture.

"Chicago is now struggling with a new primary law, which has so far shown that there are about ten candidates for every office; about every other lawyer in Chicago wants to be a Municipal Court Judge, myself included. Candidates will be nominated August 8th, at a primary by a vote of the people; those having the highest number of votes will be the nominees of the respective parties. If I succeed in being elected, I will give a fair amount of credit to the class of 93, and some more credit to the faculty of the law department of the University of Michigan."

It is useless to say what a brilliant success Class-mate Good has made. Everybody is invited to Washington to call on him, and if you have not enough money to go, just drop him a line and he will furnish it.

Mont., June 3rd, 1907. Keeps in touch with Park, Jeffries, Barnhart, and a few others. In writing says:

"In reply to the request for 'one or more interesting experiences since you graduated,' I do not know just what to say that would be of special interest. My experiences have been the usual ones of the ordinary practicing attorney, who neglects his office work to mix in politics, more or less in his particular locality.

"In serving for three terms of two years each, as County Attorney, I had some very interesting criminal cases to prosecute, including several murder cases. Also in three and one-half years' experience in the Attorney General's office, where we brief and argue all cases in the Supreme Court, in which the State or any County is a party, I have taken part in some interesting and important cases. However, these matters are not of special interest to my brother lawyers of other jurisdictions, and even if so, could not be properly presented in a letter of this character.

"It might be of interest to tell of the pleasant camping trips I have taken among the beautiful mountains. If I were to tell of the mountain trout I have caught you would insist on corroborating affidavits, which have no place here, but come and I'll show you.

"Enjoying at all times the best of health, fortunate in traveling, and obeying the law, I have no experiences in sickness, accident or personal entanglements with the law. Am married to the finest girl on earth (your objection is overruled) and that is my most interesting experience.

"With good wishes to you all."

"Pursuant to your request of the 15th inst., I am enclosing you, hurriedly filled out, the application therein contained. I am too far South, it seems, to keep in touch with many of my classmates. I only heard that you were in Texas something like a year ago, but did not know definitely your address until I received your letter above mentioned. The only death of any member of our Class that I have learned of since the issuance of the last directory was that of Mr. Traey of Hale, Mo., who died a little over a year ago.

"I have been in Texas ever since graduating at the U. of M. Practiced law at Goldthwaite about two or three years, and have been in Brownwood ever since. I enjoy here a very busy practice.
Not as lucrative as I would like to have it, but I suppose I should be satisfied.

"I trust I will have the pleasure of meeting you sometimes in Texas, and should you ever visit this part of the State, I shall feel grieved indeed if you do not call upon me at Brownwood.

And in writing to Class-mates he says:

"From the days of '93 when we roamed the plains of Michigan to the present day of 1908. There is sure a wide field for travel, and I have been one of those who have drifted with the outward tide, and landed in the Orient among a people who long to see us collectively move out, but who really want to see us individually remain and help.

"I have spent more than five years in the educational department, and found many pleasant relations with our brown brothers and only lately transferred into the Bureau of Audits. When I have time I will try and tell you about it. This much is true, however, that the last ten years has seen wonderful progress among these people.
Those who criticize must remember that the de-velop-ment of a race is not accomplished in years.
These people have the opportunity to achieve success. It is up to them. If their efforts are devoted to blocking the wheels of progress, they will be overwhelmed, but if they get behind and push they can become a great people.”

I work every day, but find time to play golf once a week, and to go fishing occasionally. Have settled down to being pretty sort of fellow, but don’t feel like growing old for a long time yet. The world has used me fairly well, as I have a good active business, growing better every year. I have a comfortable home, and am as happy as a man has a right to be. "Am glad to see that you are getting out another directory of our Class. Your last letter has been forwarded to me at this place, and I note that you have gone into the banking business. I left Park City, Utah, April, 1906, and came to this place and started the Bank of Ely, and remained as its cashier until March of this year, when I opened my law office in this place. I ran the complete scale of banking, the bank growing beyond all expectations; went through the panic and when clear sailing came, quit banking for the law again. I liked banking fairly well; but panics come and then they put gray hairs in a man's head.
We had and still have as strong a bank as any can be made; but the active management can be held by some one else. My practice here beats the one I left behind and everything points to this being one of the largest, if not the largest, copper camps on earth. We now have the largest known copper deposits in the world, and the smelter is treating 10,000 tons of ore per day; that is, the concentrator and smelting plant are."

"I have been unable to visit with our Class at any of the Reunions, but have read the Michigan Alumnus Monthly and the news of the classes. I am just sending our Class-mate Albers my check for the directory, but cannot avail myself of his request for a page advertisement. I am glad to see that Brother Albers is cashier of a bank in the 'Lone Star State,' but I don't think he obtained this money to purchase the capital stock from publishing the Class Directory. In a recent bar primary election held in Seattle, there was about 850 lawyers registered, and as many did not register. It is safe to say that we have now nearly 1,000 lawyers in this city and more coming every day.

"Seattle is growing; cannot help it; but it has every advantage. I hope to see many of our class in Seattle in the year 1909 when we hold our Exposition. It has been suggested that I tell of one or more interesting experiences since I graduated. I have made four trips to New York since I left Ann Arbor, and last year passed through Ann Arbor, but not to stop. Our United States is a great country; it is setting an example of good citizenship to the whole world. I advise the members of the Class to take a trip occasionally and see the country in which we live. I look as I did in '93, except that my hair is turning gray, and I have recently shaved my face clean, much to the satisfaction of my wife and to my own personal comfort. I was a member of the last State Legislature and am in the race again. I extend the Class of '93 my sincere wishes."

I own a fine home, the best in our town. Have traveled over almost all the States, including a trip to Alaska. On board the boat bound for Juneau, I met the mayor of Ketchikan, an Ann Arbor law; have forgotten his name and year. Visited the Cobalt silver region of Canada in June, '07, and wish classmates interested in mining not to overlook this field.

"I am very sorry that I have been unable to meet with the members of the Law Class of 1893 at any of the Class Reunions; but living at rather a remote distance from Ann Arbor, and having three children who rightfully demand my leisure time, I have found it inadvisable for me to attend the Class Reunions, much to my regret. I am glad to learn that so many of the boys have succeeded so nicely in the profession and in other lines, and all the 'Boomerlackers' have my best wishes."

Archie A. McIntyre, Strathclair, Manitoba.

C. B. McNay, Deepwater, Texas. Writing, says:

"I at present own and live on a ranch twelve miles southeast of Houston, Texas, and will open an office in Houston soon. Texas is the largest State in the Union and has had the most thrilling experience; has been under 7 flags, but is now under the Stars and Stripes to stay, 'and long may it wave.' I am not far from the San Jacinto battlefield, where General Sam Houston, with his Gideon band, whipped a force of Mexicans outnumbering him 5 to 1. We are not far from the Gulf of Mexico and enjoy the sea breeze and it is never so hot here as it is in the North."

win, Hall, and Rowe and Roe. In writing, says:

"I received your announcement some time ago that you were engaged in the work of compiling another Class Directory. I have accordingly filled out the blank form and written a short sketch of an early experience in the practice which you may use if you desire. The early struggles of a young attorney in a new country are always attended with peculiar experiences, and I could relate many more, but don't feel disposed to monopolize the pages of the Directory. I have had interesting letters recently from McReynolds, who is located in New York, and from Baldwin at Austin, Pa. I occasionally hear of other members of the Class. Last week a gentleman from Kansas City told me that he was well acquainted with Parks, Weil, Charlie Howell and Darius A. Brown, who are all engaged in practice in that town and are doing well. Purcell Rowe has grown wealthy in the practice at San Francisco. I have not heard from McDonald since the Galveston flood. He was located there, and I have wondered if he was among the unfortunate. With the co-operation of McReynolds, who is president of the Reunion Association, I believe the Directory will make a great success. I would be glad to receive a letter from you telling about yourself and such of the boys as you keep in touch with."

"I am still in the law business and presume from the present indications that I will always remain there. As requested in your circular, I am sending you, under separate cover, a cut, which if you desire you may use.

"I had planned to attend the Reunion at Ann Arbor last June but at the last minute was unable to go.

"I have recently received a letter from Mr. McReynolds of New York in which he says that while the attendance was small those who were present had a very enjoyable time. I presume the directory is already published, and if so, and my name is not in it at all, or if it is among the 'lost, strayed or stolen,' I have no one but myself to blame."

P. M. Troy, 119 17th St., Olympia, Wash, Member of the firm of Troy & Studevant; has three children. In writing, says:

"You ask for an interesting experience. Perhaps the most interesting experience I have had was the following: Several years ago I was very, very busy and a lady client of mine telephoned me to come out to a small cross-roads in the country, as she had important business to transact. Her husband had recently died, I was in the midst of a long term of court and had a lot of court work ahead. I asked over the 'phone if it would not be possible for her to come in, but she said no, that the business had to be transacted there. Finally I agreed to come on a certain day in the future. The day arrived and I took my train, which was late, and arrived at her place about 1 o'clock. It was necessary that I return in the evening of the same day, and by doing so I had to leave her residence at 3 o'clock. Imagine my chagrin when on arriving at her place at 1 o'clock I asked that we get immediately at the business so I could get away; whereupon I was told that she wanted me to open a safe. Her husband had died and lost the combination and she had sent for me to come and open the safe. I at once got myself together as well as I could and said: 'Madam, I am not a safe cracker; I am a lawyer.' Whereupon the cheerful reply came, 'Well, you are a lawyer and I supposed you could open safes.' It is needless to say that I didn't open the safe; that I held my temper and refrained from expressing my thoughts, which were expressed after leaving her and which perhaps were not the kind that ought to be expressed in the presence of ladies.

"It might be interesting to the members of the Class to know that later, when the estate was settled up, I received some of the safe's contents.'"

"Don't want to ever get away from a 'Boomerlacker' very far. He's a good fellow; good to tie to. I haven't made myself famous by defending a criminal nor acquitted myself more creditably than the common run of 'Boomerlackers.' Have been busy and made some good money. Am into everything to my neck, and all of them, so far, good payers. All helpful to law practice and especially mine; being on the basement floor can have something of a say. Banking business here is profitable, and the fellows here think enough about me to give me a working title of V. P. The Condensed Milk plant here is a money maker; fixes me with a secretaryship and attorneyship. The White Hall Sewer Pipe plant, a $500,000 corporation, justifies itself by employing me as attorney and giving me the vice-presidency, etc., all of which would weary you and make you think Tunison vain, boastful and eligible for the vice-presidency of an asylum for feeble minded. Any other information will be most gladly furnished, if requested.”

"I see some of the boys quite often, especially our friend McRoberts, who has by his ability and push put himself to the front. I have, as yourself, somewhat drifted from the strict practice of law, but find the road a little more easy by reason of that fact. I find it so hard in a large city to induce the dear people to think that I am a great lawyer, that I have tried to cast my lines in less troubled waters. Fortune has been fairly kind to me and I have settled down to try and make the balance of the journey as pleasant to my friends and myself as possible. After 15 years on the road I don't find my feet as yet sore, nor my spirit weary."

J. E. Young. Address unknown. He was a member of Company K, First Regiment, United States Volunteer Cavalry, in the Cuban War, but his present address cannot be ascertained.
