AND JAMES TO BE HONORED

Next Wednesday, May 2, a Testimonial Dinner will be held for Professors Blume and James in the Lawyers Club Dining Room. The dinner will start at 6:00 p.m. sharp, and will be followed by a skit put on by the Law School Faculty. Because the dinner will necessarily be a bit longer than usual, provision has been made to allow 60 members of the Lawyers Club to eat at the early meal. A sign-up list is posted on the Lawyers Club Bulletin Board for those 60 who wish to eat early.

FIRST ANNUAL ICE CREAM SOCIAL - MAY 5TH

On the evening of May 5th the Lawyers Club will hold its first annual Ice Cream Social from 9-12 p.m. in the Law Quad. Rock 'n Roll and Twist music will be provided by an outstanding local band. The fabulous new recording group-THE UNTOUCHABLES-will lead the throng in a group sing featuring folk songs, old favorites, and selected bits of humor. Various other specimens of native talent will be on display. Casual attire and blanket will be the order of the day.

Ice cream socials always present the problem of neatness. It is of utmost importance that ice cream wrappers not be left around the lawn. Each visitor should bring a brown bag to dispose of his or her own trash. Discussion with a capital D will be the word for the evening.

TWO PROFESSORIAL APPOINTMENTS ANNOUNCED

Francis A. Allen (LL.B.), to be appointed professor of law beginning with the 1962-63 year. Professor Allen, who has been on the University of Chicago faculty as professor of law since 1956, will teach constitutional, criminal and family law.

He was born in Kansas City, Kansas, on October 25, 1919, received an A.B. degree from Cornell University in 1941 and his Bachelor of Laws from Northwestern University in 1946. He was awarded an honorary Juris Doctor degree from Cornell in 1958 and an honorary Master of Arts from Harvard University in 1953. Professor Allen was law clerk to the late Chief Justice Vinson of the U.S. Supreme Court from 1946 to 1948 and was on the law faculty at Northwestern from 1948 to 1953. He was professor of law at Harvard for three years before he joined the Chicago faculty.

Robert Liberman (LL.M.), to be appointed visiting professor of law for the second semester of 1962-63. Born in Chicago January 24, 1924, Liberman has three degrees from the University of Chicago. He practiced law in Chicago from 1948 until 1953 and then taught for one year in the Hebrew University Law School in Jerusalem. He then took a year of graduate study at The University of Michigan receiving a Master of Laws degree in 1956. Since that time he has been a member of the law faculty of Boston University.

REPORT FROM ALSA CONFERENCE

On April 13-15 the Detroit College of Law hosted the 6th Circuit Conference of the American Law Students' Association in Detroit. Thirteen of the seventeen law schools in the circuit participated. Pat Oliver '63, presently a member of the Lawyers' Club Board of Directors, represented the U. of M. Law Students at the Conference. The focal point of the Conference took place Sunday, April 15 with the election of Harvey Cameron '63, University of Tennessee Law
School as the 6th Circuit's National Vice President of ALSA. Highlights of the Conference included a Specialized Practice Seminar in which Professor Roger Craton of our faculty outlined the opportunities for lawyers in government work. E. Donald Shapiro, Director of Continuing Legal Education Institute of Michigan, whose office is in Hutchins Hall also addressed the delegates.
