OUR MAN IN HUTCHINS: Of the sixteen Michigan graduates who took the Ohio Bar Exam this year, all sixteen passed. Professor Steinheimer's article entitled "Negotiable Instruments and the Uniform Commercial Code" was printed in the Michigan Bar Journal. An integrated program in procedure is being offered second semester for second year students. An explanatory sheet is available in the 3rd floor Administrative Office in Hutchins Hall.

VISITORS: The SBA and the Executive Council of the Lawyers Club will have as their guests next week two distinguished speakers for the benefit of the students of the Law School. On Tuesday, November 15, at 6:30 in the lounge of the Lawyers Club, Mr. R. E. Megarry, Queen's Counsel and eminent member of the English Bar, will speak on the subject "The Law as Taught and the Law as Practiced." On Wednesday, November 16, at 6:30 in the Lawyers Club lounge, Dr. Ernst Van Raalte, Professor of International Law at the University of Amsterdam will speak on "Netherlands Public Opinion on East-West Relations." Dr. Van Raalte has written some 20 books dealing with national and international politics, government structures and international law.

AIR FORCE JAGC: Captain Gerald W. Massy, III, will discuss the Judge Advocate's program of the U.S. Air Force at a group meeting to be held November 15 (Tuesday), in Room 150 at 3:30 p.m. Students who are interested in a military career as well as those who are "draft bait" are urged to attend.

GRADUATE STUDIES: A graduate study program in criminal law--created to help improve criminal justice through development and training of outstanding attorneys--will be initiated the 1961-62 academic year at the Northwestern University Law School, Chicago. Four fellowships are to be awarded to graduates of U.S. law schools, and two to graduates of foreign law schools. The program results from a five-year Ford Foundation grant of $300,000 to the Northwestern Law School for the creation and operation of short courses, special conferences and faculty research in the field.

MEDICINE AND LAW: Two medical-legal courses for practicing attorneys are being conducted by the Institute of Continuing Legal Education of The University of Michigan and Wayne State University. They are "Basic Anatomy for Lawyers" and "Introduction to Clinical Medicine for Lawyers," at the Wayne State University Medical College. Both courses opened last week and will continue through January, with a three-week recess for the holidays. The Institute currently plans other courses on "Psychiatry for Lawyers," "Medical-Legal Aspects of Head, Neck & Back Injuries," and "Selected Topics in Legal Medicine,"
